DETENTION IN MENTAL HOME TO BE PROBED

Sweeping Investigation by Royal Commission Ordered By Premier Hepburn

HOSPITAL OFFICIAL UNDER SUSPENSION

TORONTO, Sept. 8 (AP).—A widespread investigation of Ontario mental hospitals was indicated today by Premier Hepburn after assembly of a Royal Commission of inquiry to probe the alleged improper detention of a man in the Ontario hospital at London.

The commission, headed by Clifford R. Magone, solicitor in the Attorney-General's Department, was instructed to investigate particularly the case of John R. Green, St. Thomas lawyer, held in the London institution for two years and nine months after his commitment for "observation" on an intoxication charge.

Hebrew said today, however, that the Ontario Health Department had the names of at least 100 more cases on hand for possible investigation. "We have a strong suspicion that many people are being held improperly," he said.

The commission includes in addition to Mr. Magone, Dr. William H. Avery, Toronto physician, and Lionel Conacher, Liberal member of the Provincial Legislature for Toronto Brantford and vice-chairman of the Ontario Athletic Commission.

QUIET LEAGUE MEETING SEEN

Talk Among Delegates at Geneva Centres on Czech-German Crisis

GENEVA, Sept. 8 (AP).—Talk of the Czechoslovak-German crisis tonight replaced the usual discussion of prospective debates as delegates gathered for the 102nd meeting of the League of Nations Council, starting tomorrow.

League sources said "rarely before" had such little interest been shown in matters likely to come before the League Council.

Viscount Halifax, British Foreign Secretary, and Foreign Minister Georges Bonnet of France, delayed departure from their capitals, and Colonel Joseph Beck, Poland's Foreign Minister, expected to play an important part in the session, cancelled his trip to Geneva.

The whole question of the League programme thus remains undecided, although these things were up for possible consideration:

1. Efforts of smaller, neutrally-loving nations—such as the Scandinavian States, The Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg—to ease the potential responsibilities to impose punitive measures on aggressors under the covenant.

2. China's long-standing appeal against Japanese invasion.

3. The ticklish question of appointing a trustee for the Austrian Government loans guaranteed by the League—a doubly embarrassing matter because the League has not officially recognized that Austria now is part of Germany and the loans in question may not be repaid by Germany.

Officers of Association Are Elected

RIGWIN INN, Ont., Sept. 8 (AP).—Hon. T. B. McQuesten, Ontario Minister of Highways, was elected president of the Canadian Good Roads Association tonight for 1938-39 as the organization's twenty-fourth annual convention ended. He succeeds Hon. F. M. MacPherson, British Columbia Minister of Public Works, who becomes honorary president.

Directors include Arthur Dixon, British Columbia deputy minister of public works.

Thousands Lose Lives By Cholera

PEIPING, China, Sept. 8 (AP).—Reports of a cholera epidemic which claimed several thousand lives were received here today from Shichuan, a town on the Peiping-Hankow Railroad, 150 miles south-west of Peiping. Peak of the outbreak was said to have passed, leaving a mortality average of 50 per cent in Shichuan and surrounding towns.

Taking Vote on Women and Work

BOSTON, Sept. 8 (AP).—Massachusetts voters will express their opinions in November on whether wives of working men should be ousted from jobs on public payrolls to spread employment.

Mrs. Florence Birmingham, president of the State Women's Political Club, sponsored the referendum, result of which will be advisory to the State Legislature.

Sufficient signatures to place the much-debated issue on the ballot in more than thirty cities and towns were filed today in the State House.

Euler Says Canadian Business Not Taking Advantage of Market

QUEBEC, Sept. 8 (AP).—Canada's Trade and Commerce Minister, Hon. W. D. Euler, returned today to Canada, after a month in Europe to continue work on a projected trade treaty between the Dominion and the United States.

During his trip no new treaties were concluded, said the minister, but Canada's foreign trade and trade prospects were discussed with Canadian representatives abroad.

Mr. Euler said he had not talked trade with British authorities while in England. Mr. Euler de-

Package of Gold Becomes Pebbles During Transport

GEORGETOWN, British Columbia, Sept. 8 (AP).—British Guiana police today started a wide search for a parcel containing $1,300 worth of gold sent by messenger from Masaram, in the colony's interior, to Georgetown, to be registered at the Mines Department. When the parcel was opened here, it contained pebbles, lead and rice. The parcel was twice examined and resealed before reaching Georgetown.

SPEED LAWS TOO VARIED

Good Roads Association Discusses Safe Driving—Suggestions Received

RIGWIN INN, Ont., Sept. 8 (AP).—Reduction of the automobile accident rate depended mostly on improved driving practices, and attitude and law enforcement must be directed primarily to that end, Howard M. Baker, traffic engineer of Montreal Police Department, said today at the annual convention of the Canadian Good Roads Association. He urged uniformity of traffic laws in general and speed laws in particular.

Although reckless, inefficient or drunken driving was a factor in causing accidents Mr. Baker said the vast majority of persons involved in accidents were honest, law-abiding citizens, driving competently and with reasonable caution. They were chargeable at worst with bad judgement rather than a fixed intent to jeopardize themselves.

DEFEATS OWN END

Enforcement inflicted in a spirit of revenge defeated its own end and wronged the community. It should seek to correct and educate. Suspensions and revocations of licenses had a greater deterrent effect on erring drivers than almost any other punitive measure.

Convictions always should be followed by punishment, but the penalties should be neither unduly nor unreasonably. Impartial, continuous and efficient enforcement would inevitably decrease the accident rate.

"Where the human element is involved there is no such thing as absolute control," said J. P. Bickell, Ontario registrar of motor vehicles.

French Cancel Naval Leaves

PARIS, Sept. 8 (AP).—With 1,200,000 men under arms, the French navy to meet contingencies in the Czechoslovak-German crisis, it was disclosed tonight the Naval Ministry had followed the lead of the army and air corps by cancelling all leaves in the Atlantic Fleet.

At the same time the Atlantic Fleet began loading munitions and other supplies which officers said would be enough to provide for the warships at sea for sixty days.

The loading of supplies was to be completed tomorrow. Whether the fleet would put to sea as soon as their operation was finished could not be learned.

Completion of precautionary military steps was signified in a semi-official statement issued by Havas French news agency that "no new military measures are planned for the present."

The last of reservists called for duty in the Maginot Line, France's eastern fortifications along the German frontier, marched into underground forts today.

Suburban Residents Harassed by Thousands of Sparrows and Martins Southbound

TAMPA, Fla., Sept. 8 (AP).—Harassed by thousands of culling sparrows, Tampa suburbanites were just about reconciled to the situation when an army of southbound martins elected to stop over here. Too Police the board of health and the Audubon Society weren't able to offer an adequate solution, so householders of the neighborhood appealed to the United States Biological Survey. Today came a suggestion from Regional Director James Silver of Atlanta.

"Spray the birds with a fire hose for several consecutive nights after they have gone to roost. It is believed they will seek other routes."

The fire department will try the cure tomorrow night.

Former Minister's Property Seized

BERLIN, Sept. 8 (AP).—The German Government tonight announced confiscation of the property and possessions in the Reich of Dr. Gottfried Reinhold Treviranus, former minister of transport and communications in the Brüning Cabinet. Dr. Treviranus was commander of a U-boat during the Great War. He was deprived of German citizenship last June.

Road Commission And Other Aids Pledged at Rally

Prominent Conservative Speakers Cheered at Initial Gathering of Fall Season, Prior to Provincial Convention to Choose a Leader—Several Undertakings Are Given

CREATION of an independent highway commission to take British Columbia roads out of a hit-and-miss system; definite aid to municipalities with their social service and relief burdens; national employment insurance, a Canada pledged to full co-operation within the British Empire, and other undertakings were advanced by prominent Conservative speakers at a public meeting held last evening at the Conservative rooms. R. D. Harvey presided, introducing Herbert Anscomb, M.P.P.; R. L. Maitland, K.C., M.P.P., and F. S. Cunliffe, all of whom spoke forcefully before an audience of 250 persons.

The rally was the first major gathering in the city within the last few months, and was marked by enthusiasm. Speakers were cheered as they made their points, and received a decided ovation for the passage of a formal vote of thanks proposed by Dr. J. D. Hunter, M.P.P.

As president of the Victoria Conservative Association, Mr. Harvey announced that Hon. Dr. R. J. Manion, new national Conservative leader, would attend the provincial convention, to be held at Kamloops on September 23 and 24. It is at this convention that the party will select a new provincial leader, successor to the late Dr. Frank P. Patterson.

HERBERT ANSCOMB, M.P.P.

Herbert Anscomb, M.P.P., after a review of the events of the national convention, to be held at Kamloops, paid tribute to the foundation built there for the progress of the party, took a definite stand on some national and provincial issues.

TOO MANY BIRDS STOP AT TAMPA

TAMPA, Fla., Sept. 8 (AP).—Harassed by thousands of culling sparrows, Tampa suburbanites were just about reconciled to the situation when an army of southbound martins elected to stop over here. Advised to Till Soil for Living

QUEBEC, Sept. 8 (AP).—Young men urged to find work were advised yesterday by Lieut.-Col. E. L. Pagnoude of Quebec at the exhibition here, "to interest yourselves in tilling of the soil and you are sure to find subsistence."

CONSUL IS RECALLED

ROME, Sept. 8 (AP).—An authoritative source today said Guido Segre, Italy's Consul-General in Boston, had been recalled because he is Jewish.

Millions Helped By Social Board In United States

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8 (AP).—The Social Security Board reported today that probably about 20,000,000 persons received public assistance in the United States during July. This estimate included those who received aid from Federal, state and local governments through social security programmes, work relief and general relief, the National Youth Administration, the Civilian Conservation Corps and the Farm Security Administration.

ITALY SENDS HER WARNING

Gives Czechoslovakia Advice To Heed Demands of German Minority

ROME, Sept. 8 (AP).—Italy, siding with Germany, advised Czechoslovakia semi-officially tonight to heed the autonomy demands of her German minority.

The Italian position was outlined in an informative note issued occasionally by the official Stefani News Agency. Diplomats attribute to it the importance of a Government communiqué.

The semi-official statement refrained from saying what Italy might do in case Czechoslovakia refused to come to terms with the Sudeten German minority.

It cautioned Prague of "a great crisis" unless the Czechoslovak government made a deal with the Germans, it said, came from French and Soviet quarters, with the "perhaps hypothetical" possibility of aid.

NO TROOP MOVEMENTS

The statement tonight said Italy had refrained from calling reserves to colors or other military action, presumably troop movements, because she believed an agreement in Czechoslovakia possible. It indicated, however, Rome was ready "to face immediately any eventualities."

The statement added: "The attitude of Italy has been, and is, in conformity with the policy of the (Rome-Berlin) axis clearly favorable to the demands formulated by Konrad Henlein and his famous eight points of Karlovy Vary."

It was said Henlein had not asked pure and simple separation of Germans from Czechoslovakia, and disclaimed for Germany any intention of wresting Sudeten territory from the war-created republic.

APPOINTMENTS MUST BE MADE

Federal Government Facing Many Tasks Apart from Usual Routine

OTTAWA, Sept. 8 (AP).—Four Federal by-elections and Senate vacancies, the necessity of appointing three or more ministers to Canadian legations abroad, some judicial and administrative appointments and possible Cabinet reorganization are among problems facing Prime Minister Mackenzie King and his colleagues in addition to regular routine.

With these responsibilities added to his normally heavy routine, Mr. King may have to postpone further his Western tour now tentatively planned for October.

It is possible, however, that such appointments as are to be made this fall have been arranged and await only final decision.

Ministers are to be appointed to France and Japan, and one for the legation to be opened in Brussels and The Hague. Hon. Philippe Roy, Minister to France, and Hon. Randolph Bruce, Minister to Japan, are to be retired when successors are chosen. The new legations in Holland and Belgium will be served by one minister.

Some long-standing Senate vacancies may not be filled until the new of the parliamentary session, and then only in part, if the decision is to fill them all it probably would involve Cabinet reorganization. Some Cabinet changes may be necessitated in any event because of illness.

LAST TRIBUTE PAID CARDINAL BY THOUSANDS

NEW YORK, Sept. 8 (AP).—Thousands waited, advancing by inches, in a line that grew steadily longer, on the eve of the funeral of a cardinal.

Three cardinals, sixteen archbishops, fifty-five bishops, many monsignors and 2,000 priests will attend tomorrow's Pontifical Mass, after which the cardinal's body will be placed in a crypt under the cathedral altar.

FLYING WEDGES CRASH PICKETS

Rough Stuff Continues in San Francisco's Department Store Strike

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8 (AP).—Swinging fists and sharp fingernails came into play today as flying wedges of non-strikers crashed into picket lines before many San Francisco department stores.

At least two persons were injured and seven arrested.

Scratching, hair-pulling and other forms of "roughing" marked the rough movement of non-strikers directly through a picket line at the downtown Hale Brothers' Department Store, one of the thirty-five business places affected.

Five pickets were taken into custody at The Emporium, San Francisco's largest department store. They were accused of refusing to obey police orders to "move on."

Presaging a long siege, the strike committee met to organize groups for a systematic conduct of the walkout. All those not in the picket line were summoned to a mass meeting, at which Hugo Ernst, leader of that year's ninety-day "luxury hotel" strike, was the principal speaker.

Since executives also conferred, but made no immediate announcement.

Chinese Admit Japanese Drive Within Eighty Miles Of Hankow

HANKOW, Sept. 8 (AP).—Chinese military authorities acknowledged today the Japanese Yangtze River campaign had reached to within eighty miles of its goal, this provisional capital and centre of Chinese resistance.

They also said the overland column, cutting into Southeastern Honan Province, had approached to within eighty miles of the Peiping-Hankow railroad, which runs north from Hankow.

ACCORDING TO SCHEME

Notwithstanding, the Chinese seemed unperturbed and apparently satisfied the hostilities were progressing according to a comprehensive Chinese scheme. This, they believe, will give the defenders the greatest tactical and geographical advantage for the defence of Hankow, Hanyang and Wuhan—the Wuhan metropolitan area which straddles the Yangtze River, about 450 miles due west of Shanghai.

They said the momentous struggle for Hankow was just entering its preliminary phase.

Chinese success in preventing Japanese land forces from shoving very far southward from Kiating to broaden the base of the Yangtze campaign, and the strength of Chinese fortifications along the Yangtze upstream from Kiating were believed to have diverted the heaviest pressure to the northeast of Hankow.

NARROW FORMATION

The Japanese apparently intend to sever the Peiping-Hankow line and attempt to envelop the Hankow area from the north. But the rail was bound Japanese are in a narrow column formation, a factor which was regarded as favoring concerted Chinese counter-operations.

Meanwhile, Chinese troops on the south bank of the Yangtze were manoeuvring to force a stalemate—to prevent both an advance by land and by water, counting on shore batteries and mines laid in the river to prevent the Japanese naval force from blasting its way through to Hankow.

From Shanghai, Japanese warships were reported to have opened a new assault on Yangtze River fortifications and a boom blocking the way for the naval drive toward Hankow.

RUSSIANS ARE SAVING

MOSCOW, Sept. 8 (AP).—Nearly 7,000 new savings banks are being opened in the USSR this year. Official statistics showed today more than 14,000,000 of the country's 170,000,000 inhabitants had bank accounts.

Former R.C.M.P. Official Killed

OTTAWA, Sept. 8 (AP).—Lieutenant-Colonel Albert J. Cawdon, sixty-two, former assistant commander of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, was killed in an automobile accident, two miles north of Ottawa today. His son, Kingston Cawdon, was injured.

Colonel Cawdon, according to information gathered by police, lost control of the car. He was learning to drive with his son as instructor. The machine turned over twice.

Colonel Cawdon, native of Ottawa, had a long career in the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. He was appointed assistant commissioner in 1932 after holding other offices and retired two years ago.

Sir Neville Henderson Has Long, Intimate Talk With Hitler's Most Trusted Lieutenant in Effort To Find Peaceful Solution of Czechoslovakian Problem Bringing War Threat

Chamberlain Calls Meeting Of Full Cabinet on Monday

NUREMBERG, Germany, Sept. 8 (AP).—The British Ambassador to Germany, Sir Neville Henderson, passed most of this afternoon conferring with Field Marshal Goering, No. 2 Nazi, British Embassy sources disclosed tonight.

Greatest significance was attached to the Field Marshal's intimate talk with Sir Neville at this critical juncture of the German-Czechoslovak conflict over autonomy rights of the Sudeten German minority in Czechoslovakia.

Hitler's most trusted lieutenant, Goering, previously had told even his own adjutants he intended to go from the Nazi congress at Nuremberg to Berlin. Instead he went to his Bavarian mountain retreat near Berchtesgaden to receive the British Ambassador.

VON RIBBENTROP TODAY

It was learned Sir Neville has an appointment tomorrow to see Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop, apparently for further discussion of the Central European situation.

It was reported unofficially that the Sudeten leader, Konrad Henlein, had talked with Chancellor Hitler this afternoon after returning from an overnight trip to Czechoslovakia. Hitler was understood to have instructed the minority leaders in the neighboring republic to resume their talks to convince the world he was leaving nothing undone to find a peaceful solution of the dispute and to enable him to press upon Great Britain the need for maximum concessions from Prague for the Germanic minority.

Outwardly everything was calmer and gay than ever in this convention city.

ACCUSING STATEMENT

PRAGUE, Sept. 8 (AP).—The Sudeten German party tonight issued a statement accusing the Czechoslovak Government of being unable to prevent mistreatment of political prisoners.

TO CUT COSTS OF TREATMENT

Opening of Cancer Foundation Clinic Will Reduce Prices to Patients

VANCOUVER, Sept. 8 (AP).—Dr. Gordon M. Shrum, honorary secretary of the British Columbia Cancer Foundation, today said that charges for radium treatment of being unable to open a clinic, which will be ready for opening in about a month, will be substantially lower than current prices for the treatments here.

He said that the scale had not been finally set, but that it would be based on a set by Ontario Government clinics.

The clinic staff will include Dr. R. J. Harrison, director, a radio-therapist, a radium nurse, two part-time doctors, two nurses and a diagnostic clinic of volunteer doctors.

TREATMENT FOR INDIGENTS

Dr. Shrum said that fees were expected to cover the cost of maintaining the clinic and that a gift of $5,000 received recently was to be used for cost of free treatment for indigents. The Foundation has an additional $2,000 on hand and has been guaranteed $5,000 by private citizens, he said.

One gram of radium procured in Europe into 270 needles, will arrive here shortly. Another two and one-half grams, which will be used in one piece as a "bomb" in being fused into special apparatus, Dr. Shrum said.

SEARCH ATLANTIC FOR LOST SCHOONER

PEGGY'S COVE, N.S., Sept. 8 (AP).—Green waters of the North Atlantic tonight still held the bodies of crewmen of a two-masted schooner which foundered and sank off here yesterday. Five planks, a log horn, and a wooden coal scoop were found off here by two West Dover, N.S., fishermen early tonight, as they cruised about in the vicinity where the schooner was last seen going down by the bow.

RELIEF APPROPRIATION NEARING END

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8 (AP).—The largest enrollment in Works Progress Administration's history led work relief officials today to discuss the possibility that their present funds might be exhausted one month earlier than expected. During the week ended August 27, they reported, W.P.A. rolls reached 3,666,933, an all-time peak.

MARSEILLE UNDER ARMY CONTROL

MARSEILLE, France, Sept. 8 (AP).—"Mobilization" of Marseille's dock workers, started today in accordance with orders establishing Government control over this vital port, was carried through tonight without incident or disruption in shipping schedules. The Government took over operation of the port as a result of continuing labor disputes resulting from the workers' refusal to work overtime at night and Sundays. The port was placed under army control.

B.C. Liquor Board Pension Scheme Is Outlined in Part

Minimum-Retiring Allowances Set at $25, With Pensionable Ages Fixed From Sixty-Five to Seventy Years—Plan Is Made Compulsory

MINIMUM retirement allowances of $25 monthly, rising with length of service, and general retirement at the age of sixty-five with some exceptions, are features of the Liquor Control Board's private pension plan for its employees, Attorney-General Wismer explained yesterday. Group insurance on a life plan has been arranged separately, to continue with $1,000 benefits for those not eligible under the pension scheme.

In all, 290 employees of the board will subscribe to pension contracts, arranged with the Crown Life Insurance Company, Toronto. They will pay in the neighborhood of 3 per cent of their monthly salaries, a sum that is to be matched by the board out of its revenues with the Province finding a balance due to the scheme with respect to men now nearing retiring ages.

RETIRING AGES
To bring the plan into practical effect, the Province has decreed that while the general retiring age for board employees will in future

Tense Moment in Motorcycle Race

A. H. Horton's Passenger Keeps the Machine Upright by Traveling in This Horizontal Fashion as They Round the Turns in a Motorcycle Race Staged at the Crystal Palace, London. He Had to Lean to Win the Race.

They are in Canada at present. Some method has got to be found for employment insurance, for the man who is willing to work and cannot find a job. Millions have been put out in relief, with no other result than the loss of the people's morale.

COLOSSAL BURDEN
"In British Columbia we have a colossal burden in the 20,000 miles of roads we have to keep up. The time has long passed when we can go ahead without any set plan. I say to you that the Conservative party, no matter who leads it, will have to set up an independent road commission."

"The municipalities are facing serious times. The former Administration withdrew their grants when provincial revenues fell to $19,000,000. The present Administration pledged to restore the grants, and though revenues have returned to $31,000,000, nothing whatever has been done. If the Conservative party is returned, and it will be, we will take care of the municipalities. We will lift from their shoulders those social service costs which never should have been there."

ROAD COMMISSION
PLEDGED AT RALLY

leading moment. He said, in part: "Never before was it so clearly brought home to us that democracy represents the spirit of compromise. So long as the Constitution gives sixty-five seats to Quebec, we have got to deal, and very carefully too, with the people of French Canada. Senator Meighen at the convention made one of the most brilliant speeches ever made in Canada, but it was ill-timed in so far as the French-Canadian delegation was concerned."

EMPIRE RELATIONS
Turning to Empire relations, Mr. Anscomb said that the convention had been clear-cut on that issue.

"The time is rapidly coming when we as a people have got to assume responsibility for our share of naval and military affairs, in company with those of the British Isles. What would happen to us if the British navy were swept away tomorrow? We must assume our responsibilities, both for defence and for the protection of Empire trade routes in which we are so closely concerned," Mr. Anscomb declared.

"At long last, the Conservative party is being reorganized, on a national basis from coast to coast. A national organization has been set up, organizers appointed, and we will be able to tell the people what we stand for, and how we propose that it shall be carried out. Organizations will be set up in every province, to take the story to the people, and let me say right now that we shall have ready assistance from splendid types of young men and women who have their presence felt at the convention."

"WORD OF CAUTION
Mr. Anscomb repeated his word of caution on any plan of assisted immigration set up to bring new families into British Columbia, saying in part:

"We would have to be very careful indeed before we would agree to accept 10,000 families, or some 40,000 people, unless it is quite clear that they can be absorbed into the province. We do not want to see 10,000 families settled in the interior of the province, and perhaps prospering for three years; if at the end of that time their resources are at an end and they have not become self-sustaining, let us go slowly and steadily, so that any settlers brought in may be properly absorbed."

"We must realize conditions as they are in Canada at present. Some method has got to be found for employment insurance, for the man who is willing to work and cannot find a job. Millions have been put out in relief, with no other result than the loss of the people's morale."

ROAD CONSTRUCTION
In the administration of road construction, contracts appeared to revolve among "a charmed circle," while other contractors found that they were not considered and sometimes not able to even bid on the work. Day by day, in his opinion, the Administration was approaching the methods of a dictatorship, and bringing democratic government into disrepute.

The Co-operative Commonwealth Federation, whose members were pledged to committee control outside of the Legislature, offered no remedy to thinking people, and would replace the quasi-dictatorship of the present regime with that of another and more rigorous form.

The Conservative party, now moving forward abreast of the times, and conscious of its responsibilities to the people, offered not only a sounder policy of government, but the only hope of upholding the party system, and with that, democracy in its tried and tested form, Mr. Maitland asserted.

F. S. CUNLIFFE
After summarizing resolutions passed at the national convention, where the Conservative party had pledged itself on Empire relations, immigration and many other subjects, F. C. Cunliffe, Nanaimo, stated the resolutions committee had been hampered by the extent of compromise necessary to placate French-Canadian elements in Quebec.

"In my opinion there is no greater issue in the country today than the necessity for uniting Anglo-Saxons in Canada who will stand together and stand four-square for full co-operation within the British Empire," Mr. Cunliffe declared.

"Canada today is at the parting of the ways. When you read of a picnic of 5,000 German-Canadians at Winnipeg, addressed by German and Italian consuls, and at which the Nazi salute was openly given; when you hear of a similar event at Edmonton, only a little while afterwards when you realize that in Saskatchewan British people are in the minority, and in Alberta it is only a little better, and when you consider the Avalanches in British Columbia, then, I say that the time has come to take a definite stand for the Empire connection and all that it means. Remember, the Liberals won't do it," the speaker continued.

Dealing with the actual work of the convention, Mr. Cunliffe said the National Conservative Party had pledged itself to loyalty and full co-operation with the British Empire, taken a stand on amendments to the British North America Act concerning provincial rights; reaffirmed the traditional policy on trade and tariffs, favoring home manufacture, expressed solidly itself in favor of the Empire trade agreement, and present preferences, favored co-operation between trans-continental railways; and dealt specifically with many other issues affecting all citizens. These points would be elaborated to the public in due course, he concluded.

Premier Hepburn said that he created the commission because of his personal knowledge of the Green case.

"In my opinion he never was a mental case at any time," he said. As a result of the holding of the St. Thomas lawyer, Mr. Hepburn said he asked Hon. Harold Kirby, Provincial Minister of Health, to order suspension of the London hospital superintendent, Dr. George H. Stevenson.

Premier Hepburn said Green was released by order of the Health Minister after departmental medical officials investigated the case.

KINGSTON, Ont., Sept. 8.—Gordon Bennett, a prisoner of Collins Bay Penitentiary, escaped late today and an intensive search has revealed no trace of him. He was sentenced at London, Ont., in April to three years for theft.

Fall Into Moat Fatal for Hilda

NEW YORK, Sept. 8 (AP).—Hilda, playful, peaceful pachyderm, pride of Prospect Park, has only five days to live.

Knocked by Billy, her mate, Hilda fell into a moat at the Prospect Park Zoo last week. X-ray plates today revealed the fourth and fifth vertebra of the elephant's spinal column, just about the tail, were crushed and she must be destroyed.

of Canadian goods," he said. "But wholesalers are unable to obtain the advertised supplies. Canned salmon was one product prominently advertised and unobtainable by wholesalers during my visit."

"I have heard complaints that Canada does not advertise as much as some of the Dominions," he continued. "The Department of Trade and Commerce is spending $350,000 on advertising Canadian goods in Great Britain this year. Canadian businessmen must get behind this campaign by insuring continuity of supply before any increase in expenditure can be justified."

FOLLOW UNWISE POLICY
"Some of our producers follow a very unwise policy—that of developing new markets and then failing to put out any effort to retain them, but in the meanwhile looking for more new markets. Markets when established should obviously be retained by every effort."

PROVINCIAL POLICE
TO SEARCH FOR TWO MISSING TRAPPERS

The simultaneous disappearance of two men from widely separated points in British Columbia, when both of them were partners in a trapper's venture in the North, provided the Provincial Police with a fresh puzzle yesterday.

Headquarters of the force here were informed that Mack Tegen was reported missing at Tlegen Lake on the same day that Otto Adler disappeared from his home at Hazelton. Together with a brother of Adler, both men had worked trapper's lines in common in the past.

The Provincial authorities decided to send out a patrol from Stewart, up over the Tlegen Lake trail, abandoning initial plans for an airplane reconnaissance in the area.

LORD STANLEY III

WINNIPEG, Sept. 8.—Lord Stanley, Secretary of State of the Dominion, was removed to hospital early this morning, after arriving here from Regina. Nature of his illness was not immediately known. He cut short a stay at Banff, and canceled a trip to the Pacific Coast when an old leg injury troubled him two days ago.

EARLY WINTER IN OREGON PREDICTED

GOVERNMENT CAMP, Ore., Sept. 8 (AP).—The old-timers at Crescent Lake who watched geese winging south far in advance of their usual migrations, probably were right when they predicted an early winter.

Mount Hood, above the Lone Fir Lookout, received a coat of snow yesterday. Permanent snow, suitable for skiing, was expected in about a month.

ADVISED TO CO-OPERATE

Hon. G. S. Pearson Calls for United Action Between Employers and Labor

Hon. George S. Pearson, as Minister of Labor for the province, made an appeal in an address before the Victoria Rotary Club yesterday, in the Empress Hotel, for greater co-operation between employers of labor and the employees in solving the great problem that faces the world today. "There was a fundamental problem facing them," he said, of finding employment for the unemployed. This was the great problem of the day, and to solve it some very drastic changes might be expected.

Presenting the situation that was faced by the Minister said that if there was to be the proper conditions existing between employers and labor, the employers must take the lead.

The task ahead was one that required patience and time. He had little patience with those who expected results overnight. There were some great handicaps in this task in British Columbia. One of these was the fact that the province had a sparse population for the large territory that was covered.

INFLUX OF POPULATION
The population in 1931, according to the census returns, was only 700,000. Since that time there had been a natural increase and also a large influx from the labor conditions of recent years, which would bring the population now up to 1,000,000 more. The province was, therefore, in the position of trying to absorb too great a population in a limited time.

Another difficulty faced, declared Mr. Pearson, was that over one-third of the population was seasonal or part-time labor. Another difficulty was that half the population of the province was centered about Vancouver and the lower part of Vancouver Island.

Yet in spite of the difficulties in this respect there had been less labor trouble in British Columbia than in most parts of the world. There was unrest, however, in common with other sections.

"Not much can be done," said the Minister, "until employers realize that they have a very definite responsibility for the welfare of the workmen upon whom they are dependent for the work done."

MUST BE CO-OPERATION
The Minister pointed out that there was likewise a responsibility upon the employees, who must realize that their individual prosperity depended upon the prosperity of the industry they followed.

Mr. Pearson was ready to give praise to some of the employers of British Columbia who had shown that they very definitely realized their responsibilities for leadership in the line of co-operation with workmen.

The speaker had condemnation for the labor agitator whose interest was to create unrest and trouble. An effort was made in British Columbia to encourage a spirit of conciliation between the employers and the employees.

The Government had done a great deal in improving working conditions, asserted Mr. Pearson, who referred to the cloud overhanging the laborer, due to the danger of being out of employment as old age came on. Before he concluded, he said he would leave with his listeners the question "How in the distribution of world wealth is the taking care of the men who were retired from work to be carried out?"

FREUD HAS OPERATION

LONDON, Sept. 8 (AP).—Sigmund Freud, noted Viennese psychologist who is now a refugee, underwent an operation today in a London nursing home. The nature of the eighty-two-year-old scientist's illness was not disclosed, but his condition was said to be satisfactory.

Marked Improvement Is Noted in Two-Day Comox District Fair

Judges Have High Praise for Number and Quality Of Exhibits—Children Entertained at Annual Event by Elks Lodge

COURTENAY, Sept. 8.—"One of the finest shows seen here for many years," was the general verdict accorded the annual Comox District Fall Fair held at the Agricultural Hall, Lewis Park, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. Practically every section showed improvement. Altogether there were forty-six more exhibitors and over 400 more exhibits. Junior entries were more than doubled. Membership figures likewise showed an increase, while public support was practically the same as former years.

The judges, most of whom have attended several district fairs throughout the Province this year, were unanimous in stating the exhibits were well up to standard with any they had seen, and in some instances better.

HORSE CLASSES IMPROVED
A vast improvement over last year was seen in the horse class by Dr. M. Sparrow, provincial veterinary inspector. The saddle class was really good, and the riders displayed excellent horsemanship. Quality was good in the heavy horse section, and he was pleased to note a decided improvement in the number of entries.

Highlight of cattle section was the two junior Jersey clubs, said Dr. B. N. Wood, professor of animal husbandry, U.B.C. Junior classes were an important feature of any fair, and he noted much progress since last year. Other cattle shown on the whole were good, but the number of entries was decidedly poor. Swine, sheep and goat classes were practically negligible.

In the poultry section all popular breeds were on display. The birds appeared to be better fed and prepared this year, and were of good standard. One bird, a Plymouth Rock male, was as fine a specimen as he had handled for many years, J. R. Terry, provincial poultry commissioner, unhesitatingly stated. And a display of brown eggs was the best he had seen this year.

FINE FRUIT EXHIBITS
Fruit exhibits were exceptionally good. Vegetables were well up to average considering the year. One display of tomatoes, and another of onions, would stand up to any competition in the province, it was declared.

In the women's section there was a marked increase in the number of exhibits, and some fine handicraft and home-cooking work was on display. The floral section, lent a pleasing touch of color to the crowded hall, and included some fine blooms. Both these sections were well above normal.

Horse racing featured the sports programme with several well-contested races by thoroughbreds and non-thoroughbreds. Minor injuries to jockeys en route robbed the jumping class and the steeplechase events of much of their interest—but these still proved very popular items on the programme.

In the morning Courtenay Lodge B.P.O.E. gave their annual "Kiddies' Day" and some five hundred happy children enjoyed races and competitions and regaled themselves with ice cream, candy and pop at the Brother Bill's expense. Gaily waving their flags and balloons and dressed in all manner of fancy costumes, the youngsters made a brave display in their parade through town.

DECLARES FAIR OPEN
Hydro-phones—the science of growing produce in water to which chemical foods are added—was suggested by A. W. Neill, M.P., as a serious consideration for present-day agriculturists, in a brief address as he opened the fair.

"I do not mean to suggest this method could be applied to the wheat-growing areas," said Mr. Neill, "but I do think it might be used to produce certain commodities out of season for which at present we are dependent on California."

Tribute was paid by Mr. Neill to the local authorities for their co-operation in holding the fair this year. It might easily have been cancelled, he pointed out, on the grounds of a poor season. But those in charge realized the difficulty of reviving a project once abandoned, and had decided to go ahead. Their faith had been more than justified.

The time was coming, he said, when the logging industry, upon which this district depended so much at present, would cease. Then we should have to rely entirely upon the tourist and the farmer, and both were served by the fair. It was the district's best advertisement.

A trend that he had noticed of late years was for people otherwise gainfully employed to take up small parcels of land and go in for producing in a small way. This was to the good, and he was also pleased to see the young exhibit at the fair. It was a good thing to encourage young people to stay on the land. Besides the usual classes, Mr. Neill said he would like to see competitions in judging for the youngsters. This feature had been tried successfully at other fairs, and gave the competitors a keen insight and knowledge of the requirements of first-class produce.

Mr. Neill opened his remarks with a sincere tribute to the late Lieutenant-Colonel C. W. Villiers, C.B.E., D.S.O., Colonel Villiers was one of the honorary presidents of the association and a generous contributor. He had a splendid record of public service, both in peace and war, and would be greatly missed in this community.

TO WELCOME NEW MINISTER TONIGHT
Reception Will Be Held for Rev. and Mrs. Hugh McLeod at First United Church this evening.

A provincial civic and clerical welcome will be extended to Rev. and Mrs. Hugh McLeod at a reception in their honor at First United Church this evening.

Greenleafs will be extended by Hon. Norman W. Whitaker, K.C., Speaker of the House, who will represent the Provincial Government, by His Worship Mayor Andrew McGavin, on behalf of the city, and by Rev. H. E. Sexton, Bishop of Columbia, and Rev. F. Carleton, speaking for the clergy of the community.

PREMIER WILL OPEN THE FAIR

Hon. T. D. Pattullo to Officially Open Ceremony for Children's Day

Tomorrow will be a gala day for children at the Willows Fair. Free balloons and all rides and sidings at a nominal rate will be the order of the day.

The official opening will take place at 3 o'clock, when Premier T. D. Pattullo will deliver the inaugural address in the main building along the street. Moving models of cars and trucks, and street cars will pass along the street, while miniature billboards will present their advertising in natural color. Light effects will be provided by neon tubes, and the entire display will be one of animation.

Another outstanding exhibit will be that of the Dominion Experiment Station. This exhibit, by far the largest ever entered by the Dominion Government and will display every phase of work carried on at the experimental station.

GETTING READY
Carpenters' hammers are now ringing out a merry tune as merchants install their booths and displays. Probably the most unique display in the entire show will be the model theatre prepared by Alec A. Moseworthy. This model theatre comprises a miniature of Victoria's downtown district. Office buildings and stores have been constructed in miniature. Cluster lights erected, model cars are parked at the sidewalk, while dummy pedestrians walk

OWNER OF LOT SEEKS ACCESS

Saanich Council Considers Request for Road to Reverted Property

The question of whether persons who purchased reverted properties from the municipality at low prices, because of difficulty of access, could then expect the municipality to provide road facilities and other services was briefly debated at a meeting of the Saanich Council last night. The council received a letter from the owner of a property on Cadboro Point, purchased from the municipality, who requested that the road leading to the lot should be improved by gravel surfacing. Some members of the council took the view that when the municipality sold a lot it should provide reasonable access. Others held that persons who bought properties cheaply because of inaccessibility could not require the council to effect improvements.

The discussion ended when Reeve William Crouch appointed Councillors A. G. Lambrieux, J. W. Howroyd and George Austin as a committee to investigate the request and report back to the council.

Obituary

SCOTT—Rev. Mr. A. G. Baker celebrated Requiem Mass in St. Andrew's Cathedral yesterday morning for Mrs. Katharine Scott in the presence of many sorrowing friends. Many beautiful flowers covered the bier. Interment was made in Ross Bay Cemetery, the pallbearers being Edwin Tomlin, J. H. McIntosh, R. Carrier, S. Tomlinson, N. Tucker and F. E. Walker. The arrangements were in the hands of Hayward's B.C. Funeral Chapel.

ROWSE—Funeral services will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the family residence, Mills Road, for William Rouse. Pastor T. S. Bowett will conduct the service, after which interment will be made in Royal Oak Burial Park.

FARQUHARSON—Funeral services were held on Thursday afternoon in McCall Bros' Funeral Chapel for Mrs. Arnette Farquharson. Many friends attended and the casket was banked with many floral tributes. Pastor T. S. Bowett, of West Haven, Sanatorium, conducted the rite, during which the hymns "Safe in the Arms of Jesus" and "Simply Trusting Every Day" were sung. "Living for Jesus" was also sung as solo by Miss Perrin. Interment was made in Royal Oak Burial Park, with the following as pallbearers: T. Edwards, E. Galt, J. Jewkes, G. Langford, S. Jewkes and C. Pinder.

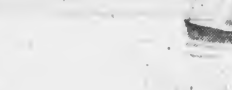

FINDS METEOR IN TREE

OLA, Idaho, Sept. 8.—Tom Cherry, Payette forest fire lookout, reported today a meteor started a lumber fire September 3 near his isolated station at High Valley. He said the meteor, a piece of heavy metal about the size of a football, was found lodged in a tree. The fire was extinguished.

A DISCUSSION AT GENEVA

Seemingly the main item of discussion at the forthcoming meeting of the League of Nations will be its own Sanctions Clause, and whether it shall be amended or excised from the Covenant of the League. Economic sanctions were attempted in the case of the Italo-Ethiopian War and proved futile; they did not stay the course of its progress; they had no effect on its result. The forthcoming discussion will only be one of academic interest, because so many nations, and among them some of the most powerful, will be without the pale of the deliberations.

The three matters that should preoccupy the League are the position of Czechoslovakia in respect to the Sudeten Germans within its frontiers; the Civil War in Spain, and the Sino-Japanese War. No one believes that any decision will be reached in connection with even one of these problems. The Sudeten German problem is regarded as one that is the particular concern of the parties who are interesting themselves in its settlement, although were it to eventuate in war it would affect every nation on earth, and because of that possibility it should be a matter of high moment to the gathering at Geneva. The Civil War in Spain is considered to be the problem of the Non-Intervention Committee so far as other nations are concerned. As to the war in China, it has reached such a point that the time for intervention by the League has elapsed. The nations whose representatives will be assembled at Geneva will be unwilling to do anything more than they did in the case of the absorption of Manchuria by Japan, namely, pass a pious resolution deprecating such a course of action. On the other hand, the League may leave the struggle in China severely alone.

The question is, what will the League accomplish at its coming meeting? So much faith has been lost in its activities that the League will require some resounding action on its part to centre world attention on it again. The decision on sanctions, whatever it may be, will hardly arouse a ripple of human interest. Even a finding reached about the problem of Jewish refugees must be a tentative one. The representatives of the nations assembling at Geneva are not plenipotentiaries. They must refer their attitudes and their findings to their respective governments. The League, indeed, has become an academic body discussing in theory the best ways to achieve peace. It will never be successful as an arbiter of world opinion unless and until it has the will and the power to make its dreams come true, and a prerequisite of this is membership in it of all the Powers, great and small.

SEAWAY CONTROVERSY

Mr. Mackenzie King has written a letter to Mr. Mitchell Hepburn, of Ontario, the obvious purport of which is to change the latter's opinion on the development of the St. Lawrence seaway. The letter, however, is unlikely to accomplish its purpose, inasmuch as it admits that the whole issue concerns power rather than navigation possibilities. Inasmuch as Ontario possesses all the power it needs and has the resources for development, other than in the St. Lawrence, for decades to come, it is hardly likely that Mr. Hepburn's opposition to the development of power internationally will be changed.

There is much to be said from Ontario's standpoint. That Province desires to maintain freedom to develop its own resources for its own uses and at its own discretion. Mr. Mackenzie King wants to fall into line with Mr. Roosevelt's policy respecting the St. Lawrence, a policy which will be an issue in the American elections of November. Mr. Hepburn cannot see, since Ontario does not need the power it is proposed to develop, why his Exaltedness should spend a huge sum of money to give political assistance to the Democrats of the United States, or to industrial interests on the American side of the international boundary line.

Mr. King reminds Mr. Hepburn that Ontario need not take power developed on the Canadian side under the proposed project until seven years after signature of the contemplated treaty, and he remarks that "perhaps by that time Ontario may need this extra power." In the meantime he wishes to commit Ontario to the payment of the major share of the liabilities, although it is problematical when that Province will need the power. The letter from Mr. King is written in diplomatic vein; it is in the nature of an appeal to Premier Hepburn to change his mind. As a matter of fact, however, no arguments educed by the Federal Prime Minister have added a scintilla of evidence to the controversy over the St. Lawrence Seaway project, which has been threshed out ad nauseam long since. In a nutshell, the Americans want the power and want it developed on an international basis, as it would have to be. The industrial interests on the Canadian side do not need the power, and therefore are unwilling that the great expenditure involved should be undertaken.

HUMAN MOODS

University professors in these days seem to have time to burn in their investigations of mental reactions. They offer psychological conclusions which are formed on the flimsiest basis, and, indeed, sometimes it seems as if they considered they had a mission in life to bemuse humanity. There is the case of certain professors at the University of Pennsylvania, who have been carrying out "experiments" in human moods. They claim to have discovered that there come in cycles, or vice versa. Those who are happy must expect to be unhappy in the course of time. They even give names to the turnstiles through which humanity passes, on its "mood" course—happiness, feeling pleasant, merely hopeful, interested, and then not so interested, gloomy, apprehensive, angry, and downright sad. Then, having accomplished this descent to the Avernus of human feeling, there is a change in the mental barometer and the ascending scale is experienced.

The most superficial observer, who knows nothing about psychology, does know that there is always something "round the corner" in a mental sense. He knows, for instance, that his judgments are a parcel of his fortunes, and also his mental equilibrium, or otherwise, depends very largely on the state of his liver, and the individual liver is not the mass liver, and therefore to say that moods of depression and the reverse proceed in cycles is a gratuitous assumption incapable of proof. For every "Mr. Jandyc" the wind is sometimes in the East, and to the experiences of life the mental reactions are not necessarily the same in all individuals. It is silliness to attempt to deal with human moods in the mass. It is probably now as it was when John Milton said that "the mind is its own place and in itself can make a heaven of hell, a hell of heaven." It is the individual, not the mass mind, that is responsible for moods, despite all the windy verbiage of university professors of psychology.

NEW ZEALAND BUTTER

The Federal Government has removed the exchange dumping duty against New Zealand butter; in other words, the product can now enter Canada at four and one-half cents per pound less duty than for some time past. Canada, through her own production of butter, has now a surplus of 10,000,000 pounds in storage, over and above normal holdings. There have been discussions in the industry how to get rid of this surplus without causing a price collapse. No decision has been reached, and now the situation is further complicated by the entry of the New Zealand product at but little more than half the duty it paid before. There is a promise that shipments from New Zealand will be regulated with the desire not to disturb the Canadian market, but that market can hardly fail to be disturbed by any increase in imports that can be sold at a low price here.

There is now only a duty of five cents a pound on New Zealand butter under the Canada-New Zealand Trade Treaty. The reason of the exchange dumping duty imposed in 1934 was because of the inflation of New Zealand's currency. That Dominion can find little market for her butter in London, which has been glutted with supplies, so she has turned to Canada and has succeeded in convincing the Government at Ottawa that the exchange dumping duty should be removed. This intensifies the problem for the Canadian producer, now faced with a surplus in production. The Government's action may well place the dairying industry in a precarious position.

"PRODUCT OF BARBARISM"

There is an almost unlimited ability to somewhat politically in the career of a dictator. To such rulers consistency is not a jewel. There is an illustration of this in comparing the actions of Premier Benito Mussolini today with his utterance in November, 1927, when he said, addressing a meeting of foreign journalists: "Fascism means unity; anti-Semitism means destruction and division. Fascist anti-Semitism is not anti-Semitic. Fascism therefore implies a cross absurdity. It is in Italy, it appears extremely ludicrous that the anti-Semites of Germany should try to win their way through Fascism. And from other countries, too, information reaches us that a Fascism of anti-Semitic shade is trying to strike root. We protest with all our energy against Fascism being compromised in this way. Anti-Semitism is a product of barbarism." If Premier Mussolini was logical in what he said eleven years ago, the conclusion must be reached that Italy and Germany have developed as barbarous countries.

There is in all of us an impediment to perfect happiness; namely, weakness of the will which we possess, and a desire for the things which we have not.—Mme. de Rieux.

And to some men popularity is always auspicious. Enjoying none themselves, they are prone to suspect the validity of those attainments which command it.—George Henry Lewis.

The Weather

Metropolitan Office, Victoria, B.C., at 7:00 p.m. September 8, 1938.

SYNOPSIS OF WEATHER CONDITIONS

A pronounced low pressure is centred over Alaska, while over British Columbia it remains comparatively high. The weather is moderately warm in all parts of this Province, and showers have occurred on the Northern Coast and also in the Kootenay district. It has become quite cool in the Prairie Provinces, while rain is general in Alberta.

Note and Comment

By Sandham Graves

It was with something of a shock that I concluded the reading of the third, and final, section of the report that the Man from Mars is ever likely to hand me; my friend, having contracted a common Earth malady known as procrastination, by reason of which he is now confined in a Martian infirmary under strict quarantine. The third scroll I found rolled up inside my morning newspaper, identifiable by the same copperplate handwriting and corroborated by a brief personal note at the beginning. I marvelled not to think that the Martians have conquered the transmission of matter, while we of the Earth are still trying to solve the transmission of energy. For, in either case, the scroll must speak for itself.

"My Lords of the Inner Circle, I crave the indulgence of your infinite patience while I reflect and prepare my report on the Earth People in its final form. This, the third section, is brief and hurriedly written, and is only a substitute, and one day they will appear to the real thing. I have, indeed, great hopes that the Sophisticians will in time become Primitives, reaching that higher form by the peculiar combination of that is a subtle and natural from the Martian standpoint. I conclude this section of my report in haste, alarmed at the state of lassitude which is slowly overcoming my faculties. I fear I dread to think that I may have contracted in sober truth, that strange Earth malady—procrastination. I trust it will not be so. With profound respect, My Lords of the Inner Circle, I subscribe myself, your obedient servant."

So ended the strange document, and as I raced to touch again the olive-green cylinder in which came the second section of the report, I discovered to my chagrin that it had dissolved in the air, leaving little but a fine white ash. I can ask, only, that you will accept my word. There is no proof to offer.

Defunct Brokerage Firm Lost $50,000 In Less Than Year

Auditor Tells of Heavy Losses of Calgary Company During Short Existence, in Course of Conspiracy Trial

CALGARY, Sept. 8.—In its existence of less than ten months, F. C. Rubbra & Company, Ltd., lost approximately $50,000. B. I. Jennett, resident partner of the auditing firm of Peat, Marwick & Mitchell, testified at the third day's preliminary hearing of conspiracy charges against F. C. Rubbra and W. D. Smith before Police Magistrate I. P. Fitch, K.C., today.

Denial was entered during the hearing by S. J. Helman, K.C., counsel for Smith, that altered pages in the Rubbra firm's stock ledger were in the handwriting of Smith, as intimated at Wednesday's session.

Charles W. Richardson, Medicine Hat audit clerk, who said Wednesday that the altered sheets were "apparently" in the handwriting of Smith, a director of the firm, testified under Helman's cross-examination today that he might have been mistaken, and that the substituted writing might have been in the writing of other employees of the firm.

TELLS OF FIRM'S LOSSES

The Rubbra firm had incurred net losses of approximately $50,000 from its organization meeting in April to its voluntary declaration of bankruptcy in December, 1937, Jennett told John McNeill, assisting prosecuting counsel for John Mayor, K.C. Jennett's firm made an audit of the Rubbra firm's standing on November 3 at the request of P. C. Rubbra, and made another audit of the standing as at December 4 for the trustees in bankruptcy.

DROP SHOWN HERE IN RELIEF TOTAL

During August, 433 family units received assistance in the city, compared with 434 in July and 563 in August, 1937. The August total showed the lowest number of units since files were commenced in 1922. Single unemployed persons in receipt of assistance last month totaled 385, compared with 387 in July and 393 in August, 1937.

proposals and intimating the Government lacks effective authority.

At the same time the Government announced President Eduard Benes would make a radio address to his troubled nation tomorrow afternoon.

It will be the first direct word from the President to his people for many weeks, and it was regarded as significant that he chose to speak before Chancellor Hitler discusses foreign affairs at Nuremberg next Monday.

Observers believed Benes would declare to the world that Czechoslovakia could make no more concessions to the Sudeten German minority than those already offered, covering virtually all the Sudeten demands originally advanced.

Difficulties increased. Difficulties of negotiating the Czech-German dispute were increased by the Sudeten party statement hinting that the autonomous demands "minority" could have little confidence in commitments the Government might make.

Party leaders had studied a vast quantity of data purporting to describe abuses suffered by Sudeten German prisoners in Czechoslovak jails.

Complaints to the Interior Ministry and the Premier against alleged beatings were "productive of promises, but no correction," the statement said.

A school strike at Troppau was another disturbing element. Sudeten mothers there have protested ineffectually because they could not send their children in German schools and taught their children to keep their children out of school until they gained their way.

CHILDREN PARADE About 1,000 school children paraded in Troppau singing Sudeten songs in protest.

Sudeten German leaders took advantage of the time in their disrupted negotiations with the Czechoslovak Government today to try to line up other minorities dissatisfied with the Prague regime.

Officials of the Hungarian, Polish and Slovak People's Parties were approached by the Sudeten. Although there was "unity of purpose" enough after the talks, it remained questionable whether close co-operation could be attained by the German minority.

There was heightened enthusiasm and confidence morale throughout the Sudeten district that the autonomy problem would be solved in some German way.

For most Sudeten, particularly the peasantry among the republics, 3,500,000 Germans, the goal was Anschluss (union) with Germany.

On the other hand, there was a difference of opinion in some quarters of the Sudeten region where there are 500,000 Social Democrats who want autonomy but are opposed to union with Germany.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—Prime Minister Chamberlain today called a full meeting of the Cabinet for Monday, after he conferred all day with his ministers on the Czechoslovak deadlock.

The Cabinet will meet seven hours before Chancellor Hitler winds up the tenth annual Nazi Party Congress in Nuremberg with a speech which may determine peace or war over Czechoslovakia's autonomy-demanding Sudeten German minority.

An assembly of British ministers at such a time was interpreted in some quarters as perhaps Great Britain's final attempt to warn Hitler against any warlike course over the Czechoslovak issue.

There was little evidence that today's conferences resulted in any definite plan of action.

Diplomatic quarters did not rule out the possibility that the ministers may have discussed a further warning to Germany.

A statement in informed quarters that Britain planned no further pressure on the Czechoslovak Government to bring still more concessions to the Sudeten Germans indicated Mr. Chamberlain and the Cabinet faced one of two courses.

1. To harden the stand against Germany in support of Czechoslovakia—which might mean military assistance.

2. Withdraw from the scene to leave the Czechoslovaks to make the best terms they could with Germany or resist with possible aid from France and Soviet Russia.

UNITED FRONT FROM BALKANS

Near East Entente Is Indicated in New Move By Turkey

ISTANBUL, Turkey, Sept. 8.—Possibility of a united front on the Balkan and Near East Entente was indicated today upon the departure of Foreign Minister Tefik Rustu Aras of Turkey for League of Nations sessions at Geneva.

Turkey is a link between the Balkan Entente, composed of Turkey, Greece, Yugoslavia and Rumania, and the Near East Entente, made up of Turkey, Iran, Iraq and Afghanistan. Aras will meet with both groups at Geneva.

There was no intimation what stand would be taken on the Czechoslovak question. However, Turkey recently received £16,000,000 ($80,000,000) in credits from the British Government and her Government agencies, which led some quarters to believe the Turks might support France, Russia and Great Britain.

Vancover Logger Killed Instantly

Benjamin Springer, twenty-one-year-old Vancouver youth, was killed instantly yesterday in a logging accident at a Franklin River logging operation, near Port Alberni, B.C., police reported here.

Police headquarters stated advice received from their office at Port Alberni said a log rolled on young Springer. The accident occurred at the Franklin River camp of Bloedel, Stewart & Welsh, but the message gave no other details.

Springer's mother, Mrs. C. A. Springer, and his brother, Robert, reside at Vancouver.

Private Funeral Rites For Cecil Bird Today

A private service for the late Cecil Bird will be held at the family residence, 303 Vancouver Street, at noon today, and later cremation will take place at the Royal Oak Burial Park.

Mr. Bird joined the Canadian Field Artillery in England in 1911 and served overseas for the balance of the Great War returning to Canada in 1919. He had come first to this country from England in 1899 and settled in Saskatchewan in 1912. He came to Vancouver Island and lived at Qualicum until 1914. Following his war service he came again to Vancouver Island in 1919, and after spending some years at Mill Bay he settled in Victoria in 1924.

He was a member of the British Public Schools Club and was greatly interested in golf and tennis.

ROCHESTER, Minn., Sept. 8.—James Roosevelt, son and personal secretary of President Roosevelt, today started a hospital diet in preparation for a gastric operation early next week.

Mayo Clinic physicians said results of treatments for a small gastric ulcer "were rather disappointing" and announced last night their decision to operate.

Victoria Boy Passes R.A.F. Examinations

News has been received here that Acting Pilot Officer Peter Aldous, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Aldous, Cadboro Point, who left here last February to join the Royal Air Force in England, has just passed his examinations and received his wings, and after a further three months' training will be appointed to a squadron.

At present stationed at Shawbury, Shropshire, A.P.O. Aldous has been barely six months winning his wings, having begun his training about March 7 last.

In letters he has several times referred appreciatively to the great value of the experience he has gained in signaling, navigation and other related subjects while he belonged to the Sea Scouts in Victoria.

Sisters in Important Positions

Important positions on the staff of St. Joseph's Hospital have been given to Sister Mary Gabriella and Sister Mary Alena, formerly of the hospital staff, who have returned from a year's study in St. Louis, Missouri, where they secured their degrees of B.Sc. in nursing and nursing education from St. Louis University.

Sister Mary Gabriella has been appointed supervisor of the operating room at St. Joseph's, succeeding Sister Mary Patrick, who left about two weeks ago to take the post of supervisor at the St. Joseph's Hospital after seventeen years in the operating room of the hospital here, and Sister Mary Alena has been appointed clinical instructor.

Both Sisters are British Columbians who took their nursing training at St. Joseph's and the earlier part of their university work at the University of British Columbia and at Gonzaga University, Spokane, before going to the University at St. Louis for their final year's studies. One of the major reasons for this was that St. Louis University's medical school has attached to it several hospitals where students are able to do their practical work.

VISITED HOSPITALS

Since graduation the two Sisters have visited some of the larger American hospitals to secure as much information as possible about various methods of hospital administration and other details. They also made a short visit to the headquarters of their order at Lachine, before starting back to Victoria, where they have already taken over their respective duties.

Two other members of St. Joseph's staff, Sister Mary Fintan and Sister Mary Drucilla, who have been enjoying a holiday with relatives in Ireland for the past three months, also returned to the hospital this week.

Clubs-Societies

Seamen's Institute L.G.

The Ladies' Guild of the Seamen's Institute resumed activities yesterday afternoon, with Mrs. Vernon Thompson, president, in the chair. The members expressed their pleasure at the institute's clean appearance after it had been redecorated a light color. The anniversary tea and bridge party was discussed, it being decided to hold it at the Empress Hotel in November, the exact date to be decided upon later.

Mrs. Albert Griffiths again kindly offered to convene the bridge party, assisted by other members. Silent tribute was paid to the late Mrs. J. W. Troup, who was in the past a very valuable member of the institute. Great pleasure was expressed to Mrs. W. R. Sayer, whose health is much improved. Two new members were welcomed, Mrs. H. Penney and Mrs. M. Mackenzie. During the three months' vacation the three hospitals have been regularly visited, the Jubilee by Mrs. J. Quinn, and Vernon Villa and St. Joseph's Hospital, as well as the sick sailors, by Mrs. W. Finnmore.

Men registered at the institute number 160; ships visited, thirty; cadets, thirty-eight; letters sent.

forty-nine—literature sent, thirty-nine; meals served, five, and beds used, two. After the meeting tea was served by Mrs. B. Shanks and Mrs. Chisholm.

St. John's W.A. Colwood

The regular meeting of St. John's W.A. Colwood, was held in the hall on Wednesday afternoon, with Mrs. W. M. Brown presiding. Mrs. S. A. Parker presented Miss James, who is leaving soon for Barbados, with a gift, and expressed the regret of the members that she is leaving the district. Plans were made for the annual sale of work to be held on November 23. The tea hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. J. James and Mrs. S. A. Parker.

St. Matthew's Guild

The monthly meeting of St. Matthew's Guild, Langford, was held at the home of the president, Mrs. H. A. Hinks, on Wednesday afternoon. Plans were made for the Dorcas work. It was decided that Mrs. D. M. Duncan, diocesan president of the W.A., should be invited to address the members at the November meeting. Mrs. Hinks, assisted by Miss J. Seabrooke, served tea.

Court Liberty, A.O.F.

Court Liberty, Ancient Order of Foresters, juveniles, will hold its monthly meeting this evening, commencing at 7:30 o'clock, in the Foresters' Hall. New candidates will be initiated. Following the meeting, there will be games and refreshments.

Women's Conservative

A meeting of the Women's Conservative Club was held yesterday. A nominating committee for the annual meeting to be held October 13, was elected, consisting of Mrs. G. W. Edgar, Mrs. A. Chamberlain and Mrs. C. Smith.

St. John's W.A.

The business meeting of St. John's W.A. will be held in the gymnasium at 2:30 o'clock next Tuesday. As it is the first meeting of the season, a full attendance is desired.

LOCAL COUNCIL MEETING

The Local Council of Women will resume activities by holding the first meeting of the Autumn season at the Y.W.C.A. on Monday at 2:30 p.m. Reports of some of the convener's standing committees will be given and general business attended to.

Flotene Nightingale Chapter

The monthly meetings of the Flotene Nightingale Chapter were resumed Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. James Baker, the recent president, she was welcomed back by the members after an enjoyable trip spent in California. Mrs. F. Kitching reported on the work carried on at the pavilion, Jubilee Hospital, during July and August and it was decided to purchase two down pairs of pyjamas for the wards, in addition to having the patio tiled and repaired. The sum of $25 was voted towards the expenses of a boy who had won a scholarship at Kingston University. A set of six books will be presented to the George Jay School, and sixty calendars will also be ordered for distribution. A parcel of clothing will be sent to the Tupper Creek Women's Institute to help with their work. Mrs. Harry Catterall kindly offered to take over the work of "Echoes" secretary for the remainder of the year. The chapter made the necessary arrangements for a bazaar to be held some time in November. Mrs. J. W. Dronfield, 2633 Estevan Avenue, was accepted as a new member.

Mary Croft Chapter

The first business meeting of the season of Mary Croft Chapter, I.O.D.E. was held at headquarters yesterday afternoon. Mrs. C. Croft, the recent president, in the chair, thanked Mrs. J. W. Dronfield for placing her lovely garden at the disposal of the chapter for its annual garden party held on July 21 at which just over $250 was realized, and also to the generous donors who assisted in various ways. Mrs. R. P. Matheson, the educational secretary, reported on several bursary holders in England, and that Joan Bessy had won the chapters prize a gold medal for runner-up in the entrance examination. Grants were made to provide books for students entering High School, and also to an apprentice in engineering in England to enable him to take a university course and to defray school funds. Plans were completed for the chapter's contest at the fair next week, for which the convener are Mesdames A. A. Warner, H. U. Austin and John Mason. Mrs. Susan spoke of a visit to the chapter's nursery hut in Sassex, to which it had donated chairs, and $250 was voted to the Mary Croft at the Solarium. At the conclusion of business, tea was served.

A Cool Sheer for Torrid Days

Easy to Sew! Inexpensive!

2082
SIZES 16-46

A cool sheer, crush-resistant, cotton print for torrid days that won't wilt when the thermometer goes up.

It has dressiness enough for Summer afternoons. Yet is tailored enough for everyday occasions. You'll find it a joy to take along on week-end vacations, as it packs easily in your suitcase. The soft bodice with brief sleeves is wonderfully comfortable. The V-neck has a pointed collar. Slim gown at the front give flared fullness to the skirt.

Aqua blue cotton shantung is a delightful scheme for the colored version. See diagram! The sleeves cut in one with the shoulders. You'll finish this inexpensive-to-sew dress in a jiffy.

Style No. 2082 is designed for sizes 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46-inches bust. Size 36 requires 3 3/8 yards of 39-inch material; with 1-4 yard of 39-inch contrasting.

Singing for Women's Club Pickles Give Piquancy To Wintertime Meals

MRS. F. G. ALDOUS

Who Will Be the Soloist at the Women's Canadian Club Meeting at the Empress Hotel Next Tuesday Afternoon, When the Speaker Will Be G. G. McGeer, K.C., M.P.

Late summer days always remind us that before long many of the typical fresh summer fruits and vegetables with which we gave a finishing touch to our warm weather meals will be gone in their fresh state. It is now that we realize it is time to check up on our supply of pickled delicacies for the coming winter. One of the most satisfying accomplishments of a summer's day is a row of intriguing jars filled with pickles to pep up the monotonous winter meals. They add a piquancy that is delightful and fully repay us for the time spent in their preparation.

To make the business of pickling fruits and vegetables easy, the first thing is to check on all the needed equipment. There should be plenty of variously sized jars, fitted with new rubbers and tops that are in good condition. These should be sterilized just before using so that they will not be contaminated by bacteria in the air. Then it is necessary that kettles, spoons, etc., should be at hand, so that once begun the process may go forward without interruption from the time the food is sealed over until it is safely in its sealed jar. Interruption of the canning process after the cooking part has been started, except when specifically indicated in the recipe, means a chance for the food to be spoiled by air-borne bacteria. This is both disappointing and wasteful.

If we carry on, observing and following the directions accurately, there will be few bad-luck pickling days. Do remember one thing at the end of the day's work—after the top has been fastened as securely as possible while the contents are still boiling hot, leave it alone. Many a jar of something delicious has spoiled because the cook thought her strong-handed husband should give the tops another turn. This breaks the vacuum seal.

Some women like to add a bit of alum to green pickles to keep them crisp, but many others do not approve of this method. If the soaking brine is not too strong and the vinegar solution is not allowed to boil on the fruit or vegetable, there should be no uncrisping. As to color, the natural color is most attractive in the majority of cases. When spices are used, but are not to remain in the finished product, tie them into a small cheesecloth bag and remove them as soon as they have contributed their flavor. This is particularly recommended with chili sauce, which is darkened by spices left in it permanently.

The following recipes offer a variety of old and new favorites. They will add much to the appetite appeal of the menu, and their enticing odor during the making adds to the fun of cooking them.

CHILI SAUCE

Fifty tomatoes, twenty onions chopped fine, ten green peppers, chopped fine, one-half teaspoon salt, eight cups sugar, four cups vinegar, two tablespoons cinnamon, two tablespoons cloves, two tablespoons celery seed, two tablespoons allspice.

Method: Peel and slice tomatoes. Combine with onions, peppers, salt, sugar and vinegar. The spices in cheesecloth bag and add to vegetables. Heat to boiling and cook gently for two hours or until thick. Remove spice bag as soon as mass is seasoned. Stir very frequently to prevent burning. Can immediately. Make three to four quarts.

OLD-FASHIONED RIPE CUCUMBER PICKLE

Eight pounds ripe cucumbers, brine (two teaspoons salt to each quart water), acid (equal parts vinegar and water), eight cups sugar, one quart white wine vinegar, three ounces cassia buds, one tablespoon celery seed.

Method: Peel and quarter cucumbers, then remove seeds and pith. Soak twenty-four hours in brine, then twenty-four hours in acid. Drain. Dissolve sugar in vinegar, bring to boil and skim well. Put cassia buds and celery seed in cheesecloth bag, add to vinegar mixture. Cook fruit gently in this syrup until clear. Remove spice bag and cool pickle. On second and third day drain pickle, acid vinegar and pour over cucumbers. Use a skimmer to remove cucumbers so as not to break pieces. Can while hot on the third day.

If a browner pickle is desired, use cider vinegar and to the spices add one ounce cloves and two ounces cinnamon.

GREEN TOMATO PICKLE

Twenty-five green tomatoes, four large onions, salt, four cups strong cider vinegar, two cups water, one teaspoon whole cloves, one tablespoon white mustard seed, one teaspoon celery seed, one-half stick cinnamon, one cup brown sugar.

Method: Slice tomatoes and onions. Lay in alternate layers, sprinkling each with salt. Let stand overnight. Drain and rinse. Add vinegar, water, spices and sugar. Cook gently forty-five minutes. Can at once.

GREEN TOMATO PRESERVE

Twenty-four pounds green tomatoes, sixteen lemons, twelve pounds white sugar, four pounds brown sugar, six tablespoons ground ginger, three tablespoons cinnamon.

Method: Wash tomatoes and remove stems and any spots. Let stand five minutes in boiling water to cover. Slice. Slice lemons plain in layers in large container, sprinkling each layer with a mixture of sugars and spice. Let stand overnight. Drain. Bring syrup to boil and boil ten minutes. Add tomatoes and cook until slices are clear. Can at once.

ORDINARY PICKLING SYRUP

Four cups sugar, two cups water, one lemon sliced, two cups vinegar, one teaspoon cloves, one-half teaspoon allspice, one-half teaspoon mustard, one tablespoon cinnamon.

Method: Heat ingredients together, bring to a boil. Keep boiling point and as soon as sugar dissolves and ingredients are thoroughly blended, remove spices and pour syrup over the pickles. This syrup may be used for almost any kind of plain pickle. Do not let it boil or it will tend to shrink the pickles.

JEWISH DILL PICKLES

Three dozen medium cucumbers, grape leaves, green grapes, three cloves garlic, dill, two green peppers, few bay leaves, three pieces whole ginger, six cloves, one stick horseradish, vinegar, water and salt.

Method: Soak cucumbers in salt water overnight. Wipe each dry, being sure that all are firm throughout. Lay in a large crock (wood is best) with leaves, grapes, garlic and spices in layers, with plenty of dill between and sliced horseradish on top. Cover with boiling water, vinegar and salt in the proportion of one cup vinegar and one cup salt to every six cups of water. Store in covered barrel or glass jars.

WATERMELON PICKLE

Three pounds peeled watermelon rind, brine (two teaspoons salt to one quart water), five cups sugar, one cup water, two cups vinegar, one tablespoon stick cinnamon, one tablespoon whole cloves, one tablespoon whole allspice, one lemon.

Method: Cut rind into small pieces. Let stand overnight in brine. Drain, cover with fresh water and boil until tender. Mix sugar, water, vinegar, spices tied in cheesecloth bag, and sliced lemon. Boil five minutes. Add watermelon rind and cook until transparent. Remove spice bag and can immediately.

BEEF RELISH

Four cups chopped cabbage, four cups chopped cooked beef, one cup grated horseradish, salt, two cups vinegar, one cup sugar.

Method: Mix cabbage, beef and horseradish. Sprinkle well with salt. Combine vinegar and sugar and add to first mixture when vinegar has dissolved. Cook until clear. Seal jars at once.

CHOWCHOW

One pint small onions, one large cauliflower, eighteen small cucumbers, six small green peppers, three small red peppers, three quarts water, one cup salt, two tablespoons mustard, one tablespoon turmeric, one-half cup water, four cups vinegar.

Method: Peel onions and cook ten minutes. Drain. Separate cauliflower into sections and soak thirty minutes in salted water. Place onions in one bowl, cucumbers

SLIP IS IN COMMISSION

Lumber Again Landing on Railroad Trucks at Ogden Point

After being closed down for repairs since July 25, the Canadian National ferry slip at Ogden Point was in commission yesterday and the loading of vessels from the land-side resumed. Ships loading at the local assembly plant while the repairs were going forward took on lumber from scows moored alongside.

The Western Bridge Company, of Vancouver, had the general contract for the work, which included a new steel apron, while the sub-contract was handled by the Victoria Pile Driving Company.

LOADING LUMBER

Arriving from Port Alberni yesterday morning, the freighter Ss. Trebartha was loading lumber for Australia throughout the day. The Trebartha belongs to the same fleet as the Ss. Trevoran, also loading at Ogden Point piers for the same destinations. One of a large fleet of freighters belonging to the firm of J. Readhead & Sons, South Shields, she is registered at St. Ives, Cornwall.

DONALDSON SHIP

Coming in from the United Kingdom, the Donaldson Line M/s. Salacia, Captain J. L. McQueen, is expected here tonight, according to Robert Cumberland, of Rineh Consolidated, local agents of the line. The Salacia is arriving via Seattle and has 175 tons of general cargo for discharge here, including bananas from Central America and citrus fruits from California.

DRYDOCKING TODAY

The Ss. Empress of Canada is expected to reach Esquimalt first thing this morning for drydocking. The Canada is the last of the C.P.R. Pacific ships to come here.

British Columbia Salmon Pack Now 1,010,642 Cases

VANCOUVER, Sept. 8.—The chief supervisor of fisheries reported here today the British Columbia salmon pack for the 1938 season up to September 3 totaled 1,010,642 cases of all varieties, compared with 953,236 cases for the comparable period last year and 939,122 cases in the last cycle year, 1935.

Figures for each variety, with last year's production in brackets, are: Sockeye, 368,082 (309,141); springers, 13,283 (13,132); steelheads, 770 (672); bluebacks, 23,918 (17,848); coho, 133,700 (51,376); pinks, 372,107 (450,762); and chums, 98,788 (109,945).

For seasonal overhaul, which will be carried out by Yarrows Limited. The big liner will be ready for re-fitting tomorrow afternoon, when she will return to Vancouver to start loading for the Orient, being due to sail on Saturday, September 17.

VISITORS HERE

Wilfred Wooten, of the British Columbia passenger department of Royal Mail Lines, was in Victoria yesterday from Vancouver and called on local transportation men. Also here was Tom Hopley, general agent of the New York Central Railway, who made the round of local ticket offices before returning to Seattle.

With salmon packing winding up in Alaska and on the Columbia River late packing operations have materially augmented the supply of fish. It is reported while it appeared probable a few weeks ago that the pack would not go over 700,000 cases, it is now believed that production may go beyond 3,000,000 cases. Pack of reds up to mid-month approximated 2,450,000 cases, against some 2,000,000 cases, packed at the same time a year ago, while pack of chums was approximately 610,000 cases, against 570,000 cases at the same time in 1937.

MOTOR CRAFT THERESE RETURNING TO QUEBEC

REPUSE, N.W.T., Sept. 8 (C.P.V. Transport Dept. Wireless).

After thirteen days battling with the ice of Foxe Basin, the motor vessel Therese, engaged in delivering supplies to Roman Catholic Missions in the Arctic, has returned here. The vessel will return to Quebec.

NUMBER DIE IN RAILWAY WRECK

Spanish Train Burns After Collision With Gasoline-Laden Truck

PERPIGNAN, France, Sept. 8.—At least seventeen persons were known today to have died in a fire which burned the wooden coaches of a railroad train on the outskirts of Gerona, Spain last night after a collision with a gasoline-laden truck, which exploded. Many of the victims died fighting to escape the flames, which swiftly engulfed the derailed passenger cars.

The truck was part of a convoy carrying gasoline to Barcelona. It collided with a train at a crossing and its two occupants, fearing an explosion, fled.

Two occupants of another truck, thinking the fire on the first truck had been pinned in the wreckage, went forward to help them.

At that moment a gasoline tank on the first truck exploded and the two were burned to death. Fire spread to the wooden coaches of the train and nearby houses.

At noon rail travel between Gerona and Palamos, farther down the Mediterranean coast, was still interrupted.

RETURNED FROM ALASKA VOYAGE

Vancouver Couple Cruised In Small Craft for 2,400 Miles

VANCOUVER, Sept. 8.—Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Bartels were back in Vancouver today after a 2,400-mile round trip to Skagway, Alaska, in a sixteen-foot skiff.

They left here June 4 in the Underwing and arrived in Skagway on July 9 starting the return trip after visiting in the Alaska city two days.

"Molly and I just like sailing our little boat and we like exploring," Bartels said today.

The couple have traveled 14,000 miles in the little craft in the past eleven years, the trip to Skagway being their longest jaunt.

CANVAS CABIN The Underwing has a beam of five and a half feet and draws two feet of water. She carries a radio and short-wave telephone and in a locker are a portable canvas cabin, a folding cot and provisions.

Bartels said they experienced no trouble during the journey and traveled only in daylight, heading for shelter when the sea became rough.

"Molly handled the wheel all the way," he stated. "I was too busy with charts and navigation to take my turn."

They said their worst experience was when a large piece broke from Taku Glacier and slid into the water as they were anchored nearby.

"I looked up and could see a tidal wave rushing towards us," Bartels declared. "It was a shock for a moment, but the Underwing rode it all right."

On the return trip they sighted a fisherman in distress three miles from Prince Rupert and towed him to safety.

Everywhere we went someone wanted to entertain us," Mrs. Bartels said. "The cannery gave us all the fish we could use, and we got enough vegetables given us for a fresh salad every day."

Bartels is the brother-in-law of Commander H. A. Reed, Vancouver harbormaster, who designed the Underwing and named it after H.M.S. Underwing which he commanded during the Great War.

THE BAY Presents ...

NEW ELEGANCE

FOR Fall...

in Their Fashion Revue and Tea

TODAY AND SATURDAY

At 3 P.M. in the Victoria Restaurant, Under the Auspices of the Robert Burns McKicking Chapter, I.O.E.

Fashions' Fall themes are brilliantly crystallized in this important showing. You'll see Paris inspired silhouettes galore, designed after original creations by many of the most famous couturiers. You'll love their sleek sophistication and rich opulence of the new fabrics which fashion this season's clothes. And here you will find examples of every important new style trend, presented by "THE BAY" for your approval.

PROMISE OF ELEGANCE, GLAMOUR

This season you will learn to walk more gracefully, to sit with complete poise, to carry your clothes with a ladylike air. That is the spirit of the season and it is emphasized by the utter elegance and glamour of fashions. Fashions that have been designed to give you more allure, assurance, and sparkle than you've ever known.

The new evening silhouettes are as modern as skyscrapers, as romantic as a Victorian coquette, as sophisticated as "Merry Widow" days. There are full skirted romantic evening gowns in taffets, velvets, moires, classical Grecian frocks. In fact, there's a type for every figure and fancy.

16.95 to 39.50

ELEGANTLY SLIM DAYTIME FROCKS

All the popular new Fall styles are here. Slimly moulded for figure flattery, in lovely woolsens, rich velvets, fine patterned Matelasses, also suede crepes. All fashion hit frocks you'll love. The colors are rich shades of vivid blues, greens, reds, and, of course, ever popular black.

10.95 to 29.50

PROFILE PERFECTION IN TINY HATS

Hats that suggest Louis XIV period, tiny hats that perch atop your curls, are fashion's favorite for Fall, 1938. Felts predominate, followed by velours and velvets. Popular trims are baby ostrich, quills, feathers, suedes and ribbons. We present a charming collection of millinery, priced from

3.95 to 7.95

LAVISH USE OF LUXURY FURS ON COATS

Fur is being used more abundantly this season. For collars of Mink, Silver Fox, Alaska Sable. Many of the coats have fur sleeves and military epaulettes of Persian lamb are seen. Most important in fabrics are novelty wool boucles, some with hairy mixtures and some with Jacquard patterns in rich shades of teal blue, grapevine, rural Autumn and black.

ALMOST DEAD WHEN RESCUED

Sole Survivor of Sailing Sloop Found Clinging to Overturned Boat

OAKLAND, Cal., Sept. 8.—Near death from exposure Holger Nelson, nineteen, Redwood City, was rescued today after clinging to an overturned sailboat for seventy-two hours and told a harrowing story of watching his four companions disappear into the water.

The five youths, each nineteen, started from Alameda to Paradise Cove in a fifteen-foot sloop last Sunday and were reported missing Monday.

A tender on the San Mateo-Hayward Bridge today sighted Nelson in the water two miles north of the bridge. A rescue boat sped to the scene and pulled Nelson semi-conscious, aboard.

Nelson's companions were Stanley Norstrom and Floyd Halsey, both of Menlo Park and Howard Larsen and Everett Cole, Redwood City.

Bound for Churchill

THE PAS, Man., Sept. 8.—First train to carry wheat cargoes to the Port of Churchill, on Hudson Bay, pulled out of The Pas today with 60,000 bushels of grain.

Tourist Routes Will Be Subject Of Club Lecture

The Women's Canadian Club, after two months' cessation of its regular activities, will resume meetings Tuesday afternoon at the Empress Hotel.

The speaker will be Mr. G. G. McGeer, K.C., M.P., who has elected to speak on "Tourist Routes Through Canada," a subject of immediate practical interest to the entire Dominion at the present moment.

Mrs. F. G. Aldous, well known to the concert platform in Victoria will be the soloist.

HIS OWN BUSINESS

The customer was choosing a book at the library.

"Have you had 'Seven Years With the Wrong Woman'?" asked the assistant.

"No, twice," snapped the customer. "But what's it got to do with you?"

VANCOUVER SHIPPING

VANCOUVER, Sept. 8.—The first large shipments of wheat from Vancouver this season were loaded on two deep-sea freighters, each of which will carry 2,000 tons of new crop wheat to England.

The German freighter San Francisco, in to Gardner Johnson, is scheduled to sail tonight for London and Hull, England.

The other vessel is the Greek steamer Andros, owned by the charter to the Seaboard Shipping Company, Ltd. Both are loading at the Alberta Wharf Pool elevator.

Wholesale fish markets in Vancouver will be closed Friday out of respect for Robert Richard Paine, production manager of the Canadian Fishing Company, who died in hospital here last night.

Puneral services for the fishing company executive will be held on that day.

MASTER BUTCHERS OPPOSE PROVINCIAL
BEEF-GRADING PLAN

VANCOUVER: Sept. 8 (P) — The Master Butchers' Association of British Columbia declined last night to vote on a recommendation to the British Columbia Minister of Agriculture that the proposed Provincial Beef Grading Act be rejected.

The recommendation requested the minister to postpone the act indefinitely, because present "red" and "blue" grades of beef would be changed "A" and "B" under the new act so that other fairly good beef would have to be classed in the lower categories, "C" and "D."

DOMINION HAS EPIC OF SOUTH

"The Texans" Will Open Here Today With Randolph Scott And Joan Bennett

A romance between a fiery belle of the Old South and a handsome young soldier forms the plot of Paramount's epic drama of the Reconstruction period, "The Texans," which will open today at the Dominion Theatre.

Lovely Joan Bennett will be seen as the belle, who tries to start a woman rebellion against Northern rule after the war between the States, while Randolph Scott plays the impoverished soldier who forces her to adopt his more conciliatory policies toward the Union.

Others in the cast are May Robson, "the grand old lady of the screen," Walter Brennan, Robert Barrat, Robert Cummings and Harvey Stephens.

SHIRLEY TEMPLE COMES TO ATLAS

The advent of a new Shirley Temple musical picture means news of headline interest to dance fans. For every one of the number one star-tune-filled shows has meant new melodies to lead the song parade.

"Little Miss Broadway," which will open today at the Atlas Theatre, features a song-hy score by Walter Bullock and Harold Spina. Included in the new hit roster are "Be Optimistic," "We Should Be Together," "If All the World Were Paper," "Savin' Me an Old-Fashioned Song," "How Can I Thank You" and "Little Miss Broadway."

CULBERTSON ON CONTRACT

By Ely Culbertson

World's Champion Player and Greatest Card Analyst

There are many so-called rules of play in bridge, but only one that has a mathematical basis. That, of course, is the rule of eleven. During the last few years I have written about this rule several times, but since there always are new players sprouting up, I shall repeat it now.

"When the card led is the leader's fourth highest of the suit, subtract the denomination (number of pips) of the card from the fixed number eleven. The result is the total number of cards, higher than the card led, held by the three other players."

The rule has many highly valuable uses. Today's hand illustrates one of the lesser known uses.

The bidding:
South West North East
1 NT Pass 2 NT Pass
3 NT Pass Pass Pass

Turning our attention to the bidding for a moment, we should note that North correctly raises the no trump instead of wasting time and breath on the disclosure of his diamond suit. North has a very fair hand in support of no trump. A two diamond take-out would not disclose anything like North's strength and, on the other hand, a jump take-out to three diamonds would be an outrageous overbid.

West opens the five of spades. East wins with the king and returns the jack. Now what should declarer do? Should he, or should he not, cover the queen? (We are, of course, assuming that declarer does not know the adverse distribution of spades.) Aside from a sheer guess, the answer cannot be found except through shrewd and unusual application of the rule of eleven.

AMUSEMENTS

On the Screen

Atlas—"Little Miss Broadway," starring Shirley Temple.

Capitol—"Robert Taylor in 'The Crowd Roars'."

Columbia—"Call the Mesquiteers," starring the Three Mesquiteers.

Dominion—Randolph Scott, in "The Texans."

Oak Bay—"The Perfect Specimen," starring Errol Flynn.

Plaza—"Michael Bartlett in 'The Lilac Domino'."

Livingstone and Ray Corrigan—find themselves in one of their characteristic "fams" when they are mistaken for bandits.

OAK BAY "The Perfect Specimen" co-starring Errol Flynn and Joan Blondell, is now playing at the Oak Bay Theatre.

Besides Miss Robson and the two stars the cast includes such well-known players as Beverly Roberts, Dick Foran, Edward Everett Horton and Hugh Herbert.

PLAZA Originally produced at the old Empire in Leicester Square in February, 1918, "The Lilac Domino," now at Plaza Theatre, ran for two years, and for several years afterwards provincial touring companies reaped rich harvests from its tuneful music and sparkling libretto.

CAPITOL Sooner or later most actors are cast in roles that parallel parts of their own life stories. But Frank Morgan never thought that his life as a hobo would be duplicated in a film role until they cast him in "The Crowd Roars," which will close today at the Capitol Theatre.

WAR-TIME DRAMA TO SHOW HERE MONDAY

Frank Borzage's amazing hit, "A Farewell to Arms," has been booked for an engagement, starting next Monday, at the Plaza Theatre.

The film, which co-stars Gary Cooper and Helen Hayes, is a thrilling romance set against a background of the Great War, and was adapted for the screen by Benjamin Glazer and Oliver H. P. Garrett from Ernest Hemingway's best-selling novel.

MISS MYRA B. CICERO, well-known Victoria milliner, has now gone into business on her own account, occupying a section of the store of Madame Runce (Victoria), Ltd., 1126 Douglas Street.

Miss Cicero is familiar with the major style centres of the East and, through her wide experience both in the buying and the retail field, is able to offer her patrons the latest and most up-to-date models in hats.

She maintains important connections with buyers both in Montreal and Toronto.

Miss Cicero is also well known as a designer and is thus able to give the customer the advantage of an expert stylist in addition to a complete stock of new Autumn modes in hats.

AN event of international importance is featured in The Colonist-Universal Newsreel, which commences today at the Dominion Theatre.

The highlights of President Roosevelt's speech, in which he proclaimed the Monroe Doctrine extended to include Canada, are presented, still closer riveting the ties of friendship with the Dominion's neighbor.

Other scenes show the havoc wrought by a subway crash in New York; the setting of a new air record by Howard Hughes; the testing of Corbin's army manoeuvres in California; a fashion review, and the trial runs of Cobb's racing car.

Mr. Culbertson will discuss this hand in tomorrow's article.

WILL NOT DELAY PLANE BUILDING

Production in Canada for Great Britain to Get Under Way as Soon as Possible

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Production of war planes in Canadian factories to speed up the British war effort will get under way with minimum delay, A. H. Self, a member of the British four-man air mission to Canada, said yesterday as he called for England.

The plan announced last week by Sir Francis Floud, British High Commissioner at Ottawa, comprehends the entire scheme for the present and the objective at the moment is to get the plan working as soon as possible," Mr. Self told reporters aboard the Queen Mary.

The plan calls for the manufacture in Canada of various types of warcraft in which British engines will be installed. Mr. Self said the engines were already available.

The plan will be submitted to the Government immediately on the return to England of the four members of the air mission. Air Marshal Sir Edward Ellington has already returned and Sir Samuel Hardman-Lever sails Saturday. F. Handley Page, fourth member of the mission, sailed with Mr. Self.

Representatives of the Canadian board of businessmen and industrialists who will direct the plan will leave for London shortly to complete financial details.

BIG CUT MADE FOR COVERAGE

Saanich Trustees Accept Insurance Tender at Annual Saving of $553

The Saanich School Board Wednesday night unanimously adopted a proposal of fire insurance coverage which will cut the annual cost almost in half, while at the same time giving 100 per cent coverage.

The board accepted the tender of Johnston & Company of 71 1/2 cents per $100. Up to the present the board has been paying $1.37 per $100, and the saving under the new policy will amount to $553 a year.

The board resolved to award the coverage on all schools in the municipality to Johnston & Company, the amount of the policy being $192,000.

This decision was reached after the trustees had interviewed William H. Wells, local manager of the company, who presented detailed proposals.

The statement of expenditure and revenue of the board for the first eight months of the current year also was presented, at the meeting showing a total expenditure of $75,239, leaving $60,915 for expenditure during the remaining four months. Teachers' salaries for the period to August 31 totaled $53,728, leaving a balance of $35,930, $2,821, as compared with an estimated Office and general maintenance cost made of $5,300 for the year.

MY NOSE IS CLEAR ALREADY

AFTER THIS, USE IT SOONER AND HELP PREVENT MANY A COLD FROM DEVELOPING

Here's specialized medication for nose and upper throat—where most colds start. Used at the first sniffle or sneeze—a few drops up each nostril—it helps to prevent the development of many colds... Even when your head is stopped-up from a neglected cold.

Va-tro-nol clears away clogging mucus; shrinks swollen membranes—lets you breathe again.

YOU CAN FEEL ITS TINGLING MEDICATION GO TO WORK

USED IN MORE HOMES THAN ANY OTHER MEDICATION OF ITS KIND

VICKS VATRO-NOL

Joe Doakes and his girl want the Earth...and they get it!

WITH JOE DOAKES and his girl things aren't so hot. Work hasn't been regular, and wherever you look there's plenty of trouble. They've been pushed around a lot, and they're bewildered because things just don't seem to add up anymore.

"Come on, Marge, let's go to the movies!"

Once inside the motion picture theatre everything is changed for them. There Joe Doakes is boss. He has paid his money and what he says goes.

The whole world is brought to them, while Joe holds his girl's hand and sits back in enjoyment.

Maybe it's a hot swing band they want. The movies have searched the dance spots and brought it to them. Perhaps they want a swell adventure story—Khyber Pass, Bengal Lancers and all that. The movies have it. Or a homely, touching story of everyday folks. There it is, and Joe and the girl friend have a grand time.

Whatever they want, the movies get it for them. Cameramen go into darkest Africa or wander over the bleak Arctic to get authentic settings.

The writers of the brightest comedies take them into the drawing rooms of the wealthy (and, boy, are they drawing rooms!).

The best dance teams in the world float before their eyes and Joe feels all feet, while Marge almost swoons. And, if by any chance, it's love they want...

Don't fool yourself—the entertainment of Joe and Marge is the movies' job, and the movies are doing that job extremely well.

Joe and Marge are interested only in what is being shown tonight at the Bijou, but the Motion Picture Industry is intent on entertaining the millions of Joes and Marges and their families in thousands of Bijou theatres from Broadway to Bombay.

To accomplish this the best authors are spinning their stories for Hollywood. The best dramatists are building their plays. The finest actors and actresses of our time give their talents—the greatest composers of today and yesterday; their melodies. London, Paris, New York—the whole world—offer up their best to the movies, so that you, and you, and you may be entertained.

And around these creative artists has been placed a technical staff which is the marvel of an age. Camera work that shows you breath-taking beauty; perfect sound that gives you the whisper of a little child...the croon of a Crosby...the thrilling-top notes of a MacDonald; brilliant color that paints the world with the brush of the Master Artist. All of these conspire to make the American motion picture.

Thus it is that "Snow White" comes to life before the eyes of enraptured millions. Thus it is that Chicago falls crashing to the ground a generation after the great fire. Paul Muni as "Emile Zola" teaches the world the depths to which persecution can go—Frank Capra makes a nation laugh at the plight of a nice young couple thumbing a ride. Capt. Bligh again strides the deck of the mutinous Bounty and the Hurricane devastates a South Sea isle.

It is because of the movies that Jackie Cooper and Deanna Durbin have become everybody's ideal of a fine American boy and girl, and it is from the screen that Shirley Temple climbs into the laps and hearts of all mankind.

Pictures have come over their long road by trial and error until today they stand as one of the world's most important institutions—the beloved property of everybody—to criticize for their shortcomings, to accept and to cherish for their many, many virtues.

We who make and exhibit motion pictures ask you especially to see the productions that are coming to your favorite theatre this fall. It is fitting that an array of pictures such as this—the finest that has ever been released in a single season—should reach you on the eve of the Golden Jubilee of motion pictures. They will bring you laughter...tears...adventure...romance...LIFE—give you entertainment, relaxation and freedom from care in overflowing measure.

Watch for these new season's pictures at your favorite theatre:

Celtic to Clash With Rangers in Scottish Feature

League Champions to Meet Glasgow Rivals in Important First Division Match at Parkhead Enclosure—Partick Thistle Will Meet Clyde—English Teams to Continue Play

GLASGOW, Sept. 8. (P.)—The stage is all set today for the "piece de resistance" in Scottish soccer Saturday. It marks the first of the annual two-game series between the country's keenest rivals—Celtic and Rangers.

The match will be played at Parkhead, home of Celtic, where the league champions blanked Rangers, 3-0, last year. The contest at Ibrox Park ended in a 1-1 draw, giving the Celtic a 3-1 margin in points for the season.

With exception of last year the Scottish Cup trophy has remained with either Celtic or Rangers since the 1929-30 campaign. East Fife astounded the football world last year when the Second Division club won the cup marking the first time in history a minor league entry annexed the trophy.

The green and white-clad Celtic players won the league championship in the 1937-38 campaign—their second title in as many years. Rangers were returned champions in 1933, 1934, 1935 and 1937.

Canadians will take great interest in Saturday's contest as Celtic's regular goalkeeper, Joe Kenway, is a former Montrealer, and Rangers' sub-goalskeeper is George Jenkins, also from Montreal.

TO MEET CLYDE

Another game that will attract wide attention also will be played in Glasgow when Partick Thistle is visited by Clyde. The invaders have played heads-up football so far in the five weeks season and lead the league with ten points, two better than Rangers and Queen of the South in the second-place tie.

The other "thirteen" are on the card. At Edinburgh, Hibernians are hosts to Hearts, and at Glasgow, Queen's Park visit Third Lanark.

Queen of the South, playing at Ayr, is showing for its fifth victory in six starts. Ayr has three points, one victory, three losses and one stalemate.

Albion Rovers and Raith Rovers reconvene to the major circuit this year, have "swapped" matches. Albion goes to Falkirk and St. Johnstone

UNITED STATES TEAM LEADING

Americans in Front of Canada and Great Britain in Golf Match

TORONTO, Sept. 8. (P.)—The United States took a lead of three points over Canada and six over Great Britain today as they opened at the Toronto Golf Club the international triangular team match involving golfers not younger than fifty-five.

In the opening two-ball four-ommes, to be followed tomorrow by twelve singles, the United States team picked up points in all six matches. In three the Americans defeated both their Canadian and British rivals.

The top United States team of R. W. Lee and C. W. Diebel showed the way. Lee and Diebel finished the eighteen holes 3 and 2 up on Robert M. Gray, Canadian seniors' champion, and his partner, R. C. Smith. The Americans also were ahead of Colonel H. A. Boyd and Alan Patterson, of Great Britain, capturing their second point.

Gray and Smith managed to salvage a point by beating Boyd and Patterson, 1 up. Other United States teams scoring sweeps were General W. D. Mitchell and W. L. Peary, C. H. Jennings and R. H. Bourne.

The Mitchell-Peary combination won from John Mossop and J. L. M. Thomson, of Winnipeg, and Colonel R. Potter and Lt. Col. F. J. Popple, of British Columbia. The Canadian team gained the odd point by topping the Britons Jennings and Bourne defeated Alex. Black, of Winnipeg, and W. L. Hogg, and Lieut.-Colonel C. Lunham and C. D. Roth, of Britain. This time the British won the odd point.

The Canadian team scored a point and a half each. N. S. Jarvis and R. G. Brown were all square with the United States team of F. S. Douglas and A. M. Brown. The British trailed, J. L. Rankin and J. L. Lewis, of Canada, having lost the match with J. G. Jackson and S. C. Mabon, of United States, both defeating the British.

TENNIS ENTRIES CLOSE TONIGHT

Entries for the Victoria and District junior tennis championships, to be staged on the courts of the Victoria Lawn Tennis Club on September 10 and 11, will close this evening. Competitors are asked to leave their names at the club or to their entries with P. A. Jackson, secretary, P.O. Box 791.

Shooting Season Will Open Here On September 17

WITH the opening of the shooting not far distant, sportsmen are beginning to get their equipment into shape for their annual trek into the woods in search of game birds and deer. Blue grouse and ptarmigan band-tails become lawful game on Saturday, September 17, on Vancouver Island, and while these birds may be shot in certain other areas one week earlier, Vancouver Island sportsmen are asked to pay particular attention to the date as it affects shooting on the island. The deer season also opens on Saturday, September 17, with bucks only, over one year old, being lawful game.

BRENTFORD IN FINE VICTORY

Defeats Arsenal in First Division Match in Old Country, 1-0

LONDON, Sept. 8. (P.)—Brentford blanked Arsenal, 1-0, in an English League First Division football match on the former's ground today. It was the Bees' second victory in three starts and Arsenal's initial defeat.

In second-division play, Blackburn, who started the season at a fast clip with three straight victories, were visitors at Sheffield, but lost to Sheffield Wednesday, 3-0.

Division I—Brentford 1, Arsenal 0. Division II—Sheffield Wednesday 3, Blackburn Rovers 0.

Division III, Southern Section—Clapton Orient 1, Port Vale 0; Newport County 1, Watford 0.

Division III, Northern Section—Carlisle United 2, Gateshead 2.

American Links Stars Win Curtis Cup Again

Victories in Five of the Six Singles Matches Decides Series Against Great Britain—Mrs. Glenna Vare Shoots Fine Round

MANCHESTER, Mass., Sept. 8. (P.)—The United States women's Curtis Cup golf team rallied in astounding fashion at the Essex Country Club today and retained possession of that international trophy by winning five of the six singles matches against British rivals for a 5-1 to 3-1 victory.

That triumph was the third the United States forces have gained since the cup was donated eight years ago by the Messrs. Marriot and Margaret Curtis, both former United States titlists.

The visitors, headed by Mrs. Andrew M. Holm, British champion, pulled into a commanding lead yesterday, when, playing in the rain, they won two and halved the third of the Scotch foursome matches.

An inkling of the surprising United States comeback was given in the first singles match, during which Mrs. Estelle Lawson, Pace, United States titlist, overpowered Mrs. Holm 6 and 5.

Youthful Patty Berg, of Minneapolis, matched the 78, two over women's par, turned in by Jessie Anderson, while defeating that 1937 British champion, 1 up, to square the count.

An eagle 3 on the 414-yard sixteenth hole enabled Marion E. Miley, of Cincinnati, to gain a one-hole lead over Elsie Corlett, of England. Then the Ohio girl captured the seventeenth with a par 4 for a 2 and 1 triumph.

BEST GOLF
Best golf was played by Mrs. Glenna Vare, many times United States titlist, while she was winning 2 and 1 over Mrs. J. B. Walker, of Erie. Mrs. Vare was 39 one under women's outward par, when she made the turn with a two-hole lead on Mrs. Walker, who carded a 41.

The British women had a chance to gain another draw when twenty-one-year-old Charlie Tietman, of Erie, baby of the visiting team, gained a 2 and 1 victory over Maureen Orcutt, seasoned New Jersey campaigner and a member of all four cup teams.

That opportunity was kept alive until the last stroke crashed the last for all even. Then Charlotte Gitting of Rock Spring, N.J., put together two woods that left her fifteen feet beyond the pin, as her opponent, Nan Baird, the 1934 Scottish champion, played three shots and put her fourth into a brook.

WOODMEN TAKE PLAY-OFF GAME

Defeat Camerons, 2-1, in Second Tussle of City Championship Series

Red-shirted Colwood Wood softballers last night pulled up on even terms with the Cameron Lumber, British Columbia finalists, when they checked in with a 2-1 victory in the second game of the city championship play-downs. The series now stands deadlocked at one game each, with the third and final tussle billed for next Tuesday evening at the Royal Athletic Park.

Woodmen scored their pair of markers in the fourth frame, with Jim Milliken and Doug Bray crossing the home plate. Cameron's pushed across their lone tally in the fifth inning when Tommy Johnston circled the bags.

Lumbermen looked certain of tying the keenly-fought tussle in the first of the seventh with two men down, but Jimmy Baker, diminutive second sacker, running for Pitcher Johnston, was called out at the plate following a small pop from Centre Fielder Barnes to Catcher "Happy" Milliken.

Cameron's laced out five base bases from the offerings of Eddie Dempster, woodmen's hurler, three more than Colwood collected from Tommy Johnston, lumbermen's second string pitcher.

Score by innings:

Cameron Lumber.....000 010 0-1
Colwood Wood.....000 200 2-2

GAME POSTPONED
Lower Island Softball Association officials last night announced the postponement until next Wednesday of tonight's scheduled Pood's Dog Cup game between Cameron and Hollywood.

KENNEL SHOW ON SATURDAY

Championship Event to Be Staged at Crystal Garden Tomorrow

Final plans were completed yesterday by officials of the Vancouver Island Dog Fanciers' Association for the championship kennel show tomorrow in the Crystal Garden. The event will start at 10 o'clock in the morning and judging will continue throughout the day with W. Forrest, of Calgary, giving out the decisions for all breeds.

It was announced that Mrs. D. C. Moore of Seattle will show a smart little Schipperke, a breed which has not been on display in the Northwest for at least fifteen years. From the Westholme Kennels a large number of English bulldogs will be exhibited and the Albermarl Kennels of New Westminster will show prize-winning cocker spaniels. The Quindalla Kennels have entered cocker, shepherds, and the Colwood Kennels have a large string of collies, cairns, shelties and keeshondes. From Vancouver a number of prize dogs will be here from the Bushhax Kennels. Altogether the entry list is around the 160 mark.

TROPHIES AT STAKE
Trophies will go to the winners of the following groups: Best toy, best terrier, best non-sporting, best working, best sporting, hounds and best sporting. There is also a cup for the best English cocker, presented by the English Cocker Kennel Club of Western Canada, and another for the best American cocker donated by Mrs. Mable Warren of Santa Cruz, Spratt, Limited, of London, has presented a trophy for the best in the show. This cup must be won three times to own it outright. For the best opposite in the show will go the Dewdney Challenge Cup. Other information may be had from Mrs. C. Bloomfield at G-4788.

RACE TIGHTENS UP AS LEAGUE LEADERS

SUFFER 5-3 DEFEAT

Rookie Pitcher Turns Back Pittsburgh in Night Game While Giants and Cubs Triumph—Chicago Only Four Games Behind—Yankees Within Eleven Games of Another Flag

The Yankees moved to within eleven "wins" of their third straight American League pennant yesterday by blanking Boston 4-0 behind five-hit pitching of Lefty Gomez.

Gomez, chalking up his sixteenth victory and fourth shutout of the Sox, gave up no more than one hit in any one inning. The only bright spot for the Red Sox came with the return to action of Lefty Grove, making his first appearance since his arm went dead a month ago for the second time this season.

Grove was summoned at the start of the eighth after Bill "Hard Luck" Harris had been lifted for a pinch-hitter, and gave up only one hit and one run in the two frames he worked.

The victory boosted the Yanks fourteen games in front of the Sox and Cleveland Indians and left them with a record of ninety wins and forty-one losses for the year.

The Sox and Indians can now win only 100 games each in what is left of the schedule. So eleven victories for the Yanks, or a combination of Yankee wins and second-place losses, to make up a total of eleven, will clinch the flag for Gehrig & Company.

FREE-FOR-ALL
The Senators took a 5-2 victory from Philadelphia in a game that was marked by a free-for-all fight. Trouble started in the sixth when Buddy Myer, Washington second sacker, slid into Catcher Harold Wagner, knocking him out. When Myer came to bat in the eighth, Pitcher Thomas hit Myer with a pitched ball. Later in the inning, Bill Werber, Philadelphia third sacker, tagged Myer out and then struck him with the ball. Players on both sides joined in the fist swinging.

Alton Benton's eight-hit twirling allowed Detroit's Tigers to beat Cleveland, 4-1, snapping the Indians' victory streak at nine games. St. Louis' scheduled appearance at Chicago was postponed because of rain.

Frank Demaree's potent bat was the "difference" as the Chicago Cubs clubbed the St. Louis Cardinals into submission for the second straight time, 7-4.

Frank got two hits—one a homer—to drive in four runs. His second broke a four-all tie in the tenth, with Billy Herman scoring ahead of him.

For the first time in two months the Giants today completed a winning streak of three games in a row by whipping the Boston Bees 6-4 in the finale of their current series.

In two night games Cincinnati Reds handed the league-leading Pittsburgh Pirates a 5-3 defeat at Cincinnati, and Brooklyn entertained Philadelphia by whitewashing the Phillies 5-0.

PIRATES BEATEN
Pittsburgh's defeat cut their league lead to four games over the Chicago Cubs and to four and one-half games over the Reds. It moved the Reds into third place a half game ahead of New York Giants.

—In custom-made shirts, neck, sleeve, chest and body sizes can be varied down to one-eighth of an inch. From sizes 12 to 20 in neckband measurements there would be 128 different sizes alone. There are about that many different sizes of sleeve lengths, as well as the great number of chest and body sizes. The permutations of all these variations prove that shirts are made in 8,573,842 different sizes.

MRS. ENKE IN JASPER GOLF FINAL TODAY

Victoria Woman to Meet Miss Barbara Winn, of Seattle, for Trophy

JASPER PARK, Alta., Sept. 8.—There is still an international flavor in the Totem Pole golf championship now being played here. Play today narrowed the field down to four, but while three are Canadians, one is from the United States. He is young Bob Heldbrink, of Minneapolis, who defeated W. Sutton, of Vancouver, this morning. Heldbrink will play Herbie Black, former holder of the Totem Pole Trophy, Friday morning, in what promises to be a highlight game of the day. In the top half of the draw, Jack Wagner, of Saskatoon, who defeated the medalist, S. P. Powell, on Tuesday, continued his march forward by eliminating one of the favorites, Carl Havis, of Seattle, 3-2, Lyle How, the lanky Mayfair champion from Edmonton, won his match 3 and 2 from W. R. Cumming, of Vancouver. In the lower half, Bob Heldbrink defeated W. Sutton on the seventeenth, and Herb Black, Calgary, eliminated Rusty McLean, Edmonton, 6 and 4.

The women's final, which will be played on Friday, also has an international flavor. Miss Barbara Winn, of Seattle, defeated Mrs. Sutton, Vancouver, and Mrs. Enke, Victoria, defeated Mrs. W. R. Cumming. Miss Winn and Mrs. Enke will now meet in the final. Miss Winn had her match well in hand throughout, winning 4-7, while Mrs. Enke won her match, 4-3.

Tom Yaukey Buys Louisville Team For Boston Club

BOSTON, Sept. 8.—Tom Yaukey, millionaire owner of Boston Red Sox, tonight dipped into his bank roll to purchase the Louisville Club of the American Association as a Red Sox farm, in a straight cash deal, which will enable him to buy the manager of the Louisville team, to the helm of the Colonels in the role of part owner.

The deal takes in all real estate, including an up-to-date stadium, the club's franchise, and all the players. One of the bigger assets, Collins said, would be Shortstop Harold "Pie" Reese, for whom several major league clubs already have offered $40,000.

RANKING NET PLAYERS WIN IN U.S. MEET

Seeded Stars Advance in National Tennis Play—Canadians Beaten

FOREST HILLS, N.Y., Sept. 8.—Helen Jacobs, who plays to win, and Bobby Riggs, who plays no better than he has to, did just that today as the combined men's and women's United States singles tennis championships opened at the West Side Tennis Club.

Helen Jacobs won only twenty-five minutes of the 6,000 customers' time and dropped only fourteen points in routing Anne Harrison, of Rye, N.Y., 6-0, 6-0. Riggs, on the other hand, dropped the first set and had to come from behind in each of the others to eliminate Peter Lauck, of Wynnewood, Pa., 5-7, 6-3, 6-4, 6-4.

These results were expected, as were all the others, with one notable exception. That was the four-set victory gained by blond Don McNeill, of Oklahoma City, over Bernard Destreanu, of France. McNeill, who earned a No. 9 national ranking in 1937 largely on the fine showing he made against Baron Gottfried von Cramm, beat back the fourth-seeded foreigner, 6-2, 4-6, 6-1, 6-3, to advance in the same quarter of the draw with the defending champion, Don Budge, who drew a bye.

CANADIANS BEATEN
Two of Canada's four entrants bowed out of competition. The lone hope of the Dominion rests with Mrs. W. A. Seager, of Vancouver, who meets Allison Harrison, of Philadelphia in a first-round match tomorrow.

Roger Bursage, twenty-two-year-old school teacher from Montreal, forced the brilliant Perce Ponce, of Yugoslavia, to four sets. After dropping straight sets, 6-0, 1-6, to Ponce, third-seeded foreign star, the young French-Canadian rallied to win the match 6-4, 6-4, and fought stubbornly before he dropped the final set by the same count.

Montreal's only entry in the men's singles, J. A. Baldwin, proved easy opposition for William Talbot, of Cincinnati. Talbot forced the pace all the way to win 6-1, 6-2, 6-3.

In the women's section, Mrs. Rene Bole, Canadian champion, failed to match the smashing game of husky Anne Page, of Philadelphia, who won 6-3, 7-5.

All the other seeded stars came through. They included Joe Hunt, of Los Angeles, who won the Cup spare and No. 2 Sidney Wood, of New York, No. 4 Frank Kovacs, of Oakland, Cal., No. 6 and Blay Grant, No. 8 in the United States list, and Adrian Page, of Australia, Ponce, and Frank Kukuljevic, of Yugoslavia, and Fumihiko Nakano, of Japan, ranked second, third, sixth and seventh on the invaders' list.

In the women's seeded ranks, Dorothy May Bundy, Gracyn Wheeler, and Helen Pedersen, of the home-bred, and Mrs. Rene Metheux, of France, Naivey Wynn, and Mrs. Harry C. Hopman, of Australia, and Margaret Lamb, of England, joined Miss Jacobs in the second round.

Closing Scores
In O.C. Cricket
LONDON, Sept. 8.—Close of play scores in English first-class cricket matches started on Wednesday follow:
Gentlemen, 325; B. O. Allen, 50; Smalles five for 67; Goodard, four for 85; Players 304 for five; Butcliffe, 63; Hardstaff, 62 not out; Fishlock 60, at Scarborough.

England Past and Present 256 and 329 for eight; Geoffrey Page 84; Paviour 81; Hammond 64; Sir Pelham Warner's eleven 173; Wright six for 72; Compton 50; and 21 for 20 wickets at Folkestone.

Edmonton Grads To Take Part in Two Fall Series
EDMONTON, Sept. 8.—Two series against United States teams have been arranged for this fall. Coach J. Percy Page, of Edmonton Grads, said here today: "The Underwood women's international challenge trophy, held by Grads since it was put up for competition in 1922, will be at stake in each series."

Each series will be a best-of-five affair. September 17, 19 and 21 have been set as dates for the Canton series, with October 1, 3 and 5 for the Wichita round. Dates for other games will be set later if needed.

Grads' first rivals will be Canton Emeraude, from Canton, Ohio, a team that won thirty of thirty-two games last winter and broke even in two games with Cleveland Fisher Foods, the quintette that won a game from Grads last spring. The second will be Wichita Thurston, runners-up to Galveston in the United States Amateur Basketball Association championship tournament.

Good Programme for Race Meeting Tomorrow at Willows Track
Working crews at the Willows track are busy putting the finishing touches to last-minute details in preparations for British Columbia's first race meeting, which opens tomorrow at the popular half-mile enclosure. Eight events, seven flat races and the wooden hoppers, are billed for opening day, with large fields for all races. First post time has been advanced to 1:45 o'clock.

When the jockeys make their mounts to the starting gates tomorrow, Clay Plett, the man who invented the "yagale" bearing his name, will be the official starter. Plett, it will be remembered, was unable to officiate for the entire meeting last season, but it was understood that he will be on hand during the fourteen days' galloping on the local track.

San Randall, well-known figure in British Columbia horse racing circles, arrived in the city yesterday and registered at the Empress Hotel. He spent a busy day at the track looking over the equipment and making certain that everything will be in readiness for the meet opening tomorrow. Interviewed at the hotel last night, Mr. Randall stated that approximately 300 thoroughbreds will be stabled at the Willows during the fourteen-day racing meet—seven flat races will be held every day, with the probability of hurdle events on Saturdays and Wednesdays.

Opening tomorrow, the meeting at the Willows will continue until Monday, September 26, when British Columbia's final racing for the 1938 season will be brought to a close.

Rugby Union to Meet on Monday
Major Stuart Robertson, president of the Victoria Rugby Union announced yesterday that the inaugural pre-season party will be held in The Colonist board room on Monday, September 12 at 5 o'clock. All of last year's clubs are asked to have delegates present. Plans for the 1938-39 season will be discussed, and dates set for the filing of entries.

CANADIAN CHESS MEET
TORONTO, Sept. 8.—Maurice Fox, of Montreal, drew up within a half point of the leading Harry Belton, of Toronto, in the Canadian chess championship as the result of a twelfth round victory tonight while Belton turned in a draw.

Belton holds his lead with seven points. Tonight the leader drew with Marcel Dion, of Quebec, while Fox was defeating young Abie Yanofsky, Winnipeg. Defending Champion Boris Blumkin, Montreal, retained his position in third place one point behind Fox by a victory over Jules Therien, Quebec.

Sparking the Pirates
Rookie Outfielder Johnny Rizzo, left, and Manager Pie Traynor are two seasons for the showing of the Pittsburgh Pirates this year, a showing which sent them into the league lead and on the way to the pennant. Rizzo, a first-year man, is a hitting sensation and is the spark of the team.

Edmonton Grads To Take Part in Two Fall Series

EDMONTON, Sept. 8.—Two series against United States teams have been arranged for this fall. Coach J. Percy Page, of Edmonton Grads, said here today: "The Underwood women's international challenge trophy, held by Grads since it was put up for competition in 1922, will be at stake in each series."

Each series will be a best-of-five affair. September 17, 19 and 21 have been set as dates for the Canton series, with October 1, 3 and 5 for the Wichita round. Dates for other games will be set later if needed.

Grads' first rivals will be Canton Emeraude, from Canton, Ohio, a team that won thirty of thirty-two games last winter and broke even in two games with Cleveland Fisher Foods, the quintette that won a game from Grads last spring. The second will be Wichita Thurston, runners-up to Galveston in the United States Amateur Basketball Association championship tournament.

Good Programme for Race Meeting Tomorrow at Willows Track
Working crews at the Willows track are busy putting the finishing touches to last-minute details in preparations for British Columbia's first race meeting, which opens tomorrow at the popular half-mile enclosure. Eight events, seven flat races and the wooden hoppers, are billed for opening day, with large fields for all races. First post time has been advanced to 1:45 o'clock.

When the jockeys make their mounts to the starting gates tomorrow, Clay Plett, the man who invented the "yagale" bearing his name, will be the official starter. Plett, it will be remembered, was unable to officiate for the entire meeting last season, but it was understood that he will be on hand during the fourteen days' galloping on the local track.

San Randall, well-known figure in British Columbia horse racing circles, arrived in the city yesterday and registered at the Empress Hotel. TIME OUT! By Chet Smith

Are you sure you gave me the champagne for the christening?—That smells like ginger ale!

LIFE'S LIKE THAT By Fred Neher

"I could have sworn I put it right here."

Jane Dixon Says:

HOLIDAYS UNDER SUMMER MOONS BRING OUT THE STRANGEST PEOPLE! TWO GIRLS AND A YOUNG MAN WONDER WHAT BECAME OF THE ARDENT NATURE OF THOSE WHOM THEY MET ON VACATION.

The attractive chap, who makes vacation love to you may mean all he says, but don't take him too seriously until you are home at least a couple of months and have tangible proof that his enthusiasm is not as waneless as a Summer moon.

Anxious Ellen: The young man picked you out of at least two dozen girls at the Summer resort and he gave you the rush of your life. He told you and everybody who would listen that you were the only girl in the world for him. He was going to write you every day and come to see you the first minute he could get away from his work. He wrote you two letters. You've heard nothing from him since, and you've been home from your vacation three weeks. Do I think something might have happened?

Indubitably something happened, but don't be overcast about what that something might be until you are sure it is more than the great big let-down that so frequently follows the vacation build-up. Holidays under Summer moons bring out the strangest people.

Annabelle: When he came to visit his married sister whose cottage was next to the one in which you were staying for two weeks' vacation, you thought it must be Fate. He took you every place with you constantly. You had wonderful times together—swimming, canoeing, hiking, dancing. He took you to the train when you left, and he was so "blue" you were afraid he would break down completely. He did not propose, but you were sure from what he said that he was only waiting until you reached home when he would ask you the important question in writing. He hasn't asked, and you fear he is being just as attentive to a new girl in the colony as he was to you. What should you do?

Nothing for you to do, my dear Annabelle, except "take it." A lot of young men pack their hot weather romances along with their Summer time when they go on holiday. The romance is just as gay and transient as the ties. The romancers do not mean to be trifling, it's just that the moon gets in their eyes!

Bill Let Down: So she didn't tell you she was engaged and her nuptials scheduled for September? You spent more money than you should to show her a big time, she seemed to be "head over heels" in love with you. Not until she had gone back home and left you desolate with only two more days of your vacation in which to recuperate did you learn you'd been "taken for a ride." How can you get even?

You can't get even, Bill. The money is gone. So is your vacation. Just charge your loss to experience and make a solemn resolve to avoid netting butterflies next Summer.

RENEWS TRADE CONTACTS HERE

G. H. Ward, Canadian Commerce Executive in Great Britain, Visits City

G. H. WARD

G. H. Ward, secretary of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce in Great Britain, arrived in Victoria yesterday on his fourth official tour across Canada for the purpose of renewing contacts with trade organizations and promoting trade between the Dominion and the Motherland.

Mr. Ward will be in Victoria until Sunday, and while here he will confer with officials of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce. He is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pfender, Tarn Place, Uplands.

Touching yesterday upon the subject of the Dominion Government's advertising policy abroad, Mr. Ward declared that it was responsible for increased interest and receptiveness on the part of the people of Great Britain towards Canada and Canadian goods. Conspicuous and striking posters and placards were being widely displayed, he said.

FOSTERING GOOD WILL. Pointing out that Canada was the only Dominion with an active Chamber of Commerce in the United Kingdom, Mr. Ward emphasized the importance of the chamber, organized in 1921, in fostering good will and trade relations between the Homeland and the Dominion, and in effecting a liaison between the commercial interests of both countries.

The work and usefulness of the chamber was unlimited, and given the support and confidence of Canadian manufacturers and exporters, it would prove to be the most important non-political body representing Canada in Great Britain, Mr. Ward predicted. Among other things, the chamber had set up a special committee to co-operate with the officials concerned in the Dominion Government's advertising policy.

VALUE OF EXHIBITIONS. Another feature which Mr. Ward felt should have the most serious consideration by Canadian exporters was the service being rendered by the Department of Trade and Commerce through its exhibitions branch, which each year organized a Canadian industrial section at the British Industries Fair in London. The presentation of Canadian products at the fair afforded the manufacturer an opportunity of meeting buyers from all parts of the world. In addition to a large proportion of British buyers, this Canadian section, Mr. Ward remarked in conclusion, should have greater consideration by the exporter in the Dominion.

What Today Means

"VIRGO"

If September 9 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 10:45 a.m. to 12:45 p.m., from 2:45 to 4:45 p.m., and from 6:45 to 8:45 p.m. The danger periods are from 8:45 to 10:45 a.m., from 4:45 to 6:45 p.m., and from 8:45 to 10:45 p.m.

You may have ample opportunity this day to express your appreciation for many manifestations of loving consideration on the part of members of your family and friends. Be very discreet in the matter of self-indulgence. There may be many temptations to overdo things, especially in an attempt to be sociable which will lead many well-meaning people into trouble. You might have good reason to believe that time really has wings; for this day may seem too short for you to accomplish many of the things you had planned. Old memories may bring you many pleasant recollections. Married and engaged couples, and those who realize that they are no longer "heart whole and fancy free" must not be afraid to be sentimental this day, for affection will produce the greatest amount of happiness.

If a woman, and September 9 is your birthday, you ought to have a great deal of poise, an exceptionally high degree of intelligence, and an unusual amount of sensibility. You are probably artistic, especially in arranging furniture, paintings and flowers. Nimble fingers most likely will be your greatest asset, especially in helping you to become successful. You probably can keep a confidence, so the chances are you will share many secrets with your friends. Publicity work, selling, acting as a purchasing agent, writing or singing may give you an opportunity to make a name and money. Through marriage, many of your lifelong wishes are likely to be realized.

The child born on September 9 usually reflects most of the virtues and few of the faults of its parents.

The tiny head is important this season. In our collection are young, high-spirited hats, in line with the 1938 fashion silhouette, of fine fur felt, in glowing new fall colors to go with your sweaters and coats.

How It Started
By Helen Newman

"STEVEDORE"—A PACKER OF WOOL?

Careless indeed would be the English language if it heeded the first half of Polonius' advice to "neither a borrower nor a lender be."

We have borrowed from whom-ever and whenever whenever the need created the urge, and from the Spanish we have "stevedore" for a man who loads and unloads vessels in port, or who works in a hold. "Stevedore" is an Anglicization of the Castilian estivador, a packer, from the verb estivar, this in turn stems from the Latin stipare—to press or compress, akin, there is good ground for believing, to the English adjective "stiff" and the verb "to stuff."

The Spanish estivador was originally, very probably, a packer of wool at shearing time—an allusion is an-nerised from the Latin root which, too, connotes the light pressing together of the wool in storing or storing it. It was the Portuguese who adopted the term for nautical purposes, the man who packed wool at the shearing season lending his name to the one who packed the cargo into the hold of a ship—and before long the Spanish estivador had become the English or rather American stevedore.

"That new saw I bought isn't worth 'two-pence,'" he stormed "why, it wouldn't cut butter." His small son, Tommy, looked up in surprise. "Oh, yes, it would."

Now Is the Time . . .

To get your new Permanent for Fall! Don't delay until midseason—LEAD the style parade!
